100,000 GERMAN MINERS STRIKING

German Industrial Leaders Again
Call on Workers to Refuse to Deliver Coal

STRIKE GROWS RAPIDLY

Germany Notifies Allies Doubtful if
She Will Be Able to Pay Repara-
tions For Present

(By United Press)

Berlin, Jan. 23.—Germany today notified the allies its doubtful if she will be able to pay any more reparations for the present, owing to economic chaos resulting from French occupation of the Ruhr.

Essen, Jan. 23.—One hundred thousand Ruhr miners are now on strike against French occupation, mine owners announced today.

German industrial leaders again issued a proclamation calling upon workers to refuse to deliver coal to the invaders, at the hour when Fritz Thyssen and six other coal owners were to go to trial. Thyssen was taken ill.

More and more West Phalian miners joined the strikers today, six Stinnes mines in the vicinity of Essen closing down because the French refused to hear workers' intercession on behalf of the sick industrial leader, who, it is reported, is to be sentenced to three months in jail.

The mine owners league announced 35,000 workers are out at Stinnes' mines and 30,000 at those of the Thyssens interests alone, while strikers are increasing throughout the occupied area.

Citizens of Essen were in an angry mood today, following the march of a French patrol through the heart of the city, pushing pedestrians off the sidewalks.

Both French and Germans claimed today initial victory in the war of wills that is paralyzing industry in the Ruhr.

The strike of miners, sanctioned by the operators and authorized by the German government, appears to have been partially successful.

First reaction of the French was to withdraw from the shafts and to release certain officials. When this was done, in some instances, work was resumed. But the French claim less than forty percent of the West Phalians who mine the coal quit work, and that hunger will soon drive these back to the pits.

By withdrawing troops from the railroads and banks, as the Germans had demanded, the French succeeded in getting a part time service going on the Ruhr lines, while the district banks again opened their doors.

Fritz Thyssen and six other coal barons go on trial at Mayence today for refusing to obey French commands regarding coal deliveries.

HARRY WINGATE SUCCUMBS

Double Pneumonia Fatal To Muncie
Man Related Here

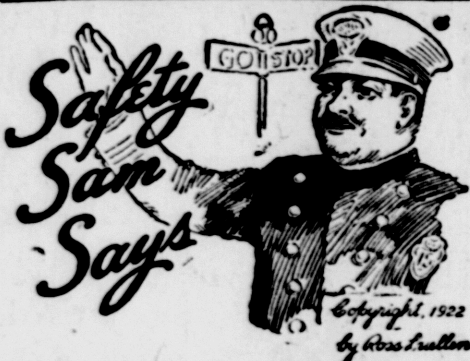

Relatives received word this morning of the death of Harry Wingate which occurred this morning at six o'clock at the late residence in Muncie. Mr. Wingate was twenty-six years old and the cause of his death was double pneumonia.

He is survived by his wife, who was formerly Miss Mamie Clarkson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Clarkson of this city, and three children. The deceased is well known here, having formerly lived here. No word has been received as to the time of the funeral and the place where it will be held.

RANGERS AID INQUIRY

Waco, Texas, Jan. 23.—Texas rangers joined local authorities in efforts to solve the mystery of the death of W. E. Holt, 45, and Mrs. Ethel Deneamp, 21, whose bodies were found side by side in a lonely road near here yesterday.

STORE SOUL WITH THE BEST THINGS IN LIFE

Advice Of The Rev. E. Richard
Edwards In Sermon On "Rummaging Through The Soul"

MRS. CARL F. BEHER SINGS

Another fine audience for Monday night enjoyed the sermon by the Rev. E. Richard Edwards on "Rummaging Through The Soul," based on Math. 12:35. "A good man out of the good treasure of the heart bringeth forth good things; and an evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth evil things."

"We must store the garret of our soul with the best things of life and not the shoddy and the veneered so that in the after years when we are compelled to live with ourselves in the memories of the past, we can bring forth from this treasury the things that will be helpful and not hurtful," the speaker said. "You will find in your search through memory's garret the things dear to childhood's sunny hours and that should be viewed with delight, reverence, trust and love towards God—the Sunday school and the Bible. I plead with you to do your rummaging now before it is, like the Rich Man, too late to change."

Mrs. Carl Beher sang a very beautiful solo last night's service. Tonight the subject of the sermon will be "Members of the Royal Household," and Harry Doty will sing.

DEMONSTRATIONS TO BE HELD FOR WOOL MEN

Scheduled For Thursday at Noah
Webb Farm Southwest of Here
and at Carthage

TO DETERMINE WOOL GRADES

Two wool grading demonstrations will be held in this county Thursday it was announced at the county agent's office in the court house today, and they will be in charge of Claud Harper of Lafayette, sheep man at Purdue university, and one of the leaders in the wool marketing work in Indiana.

The first demonstration will take place at ten o'clock in the morning on the Noah Webb farm southwest of Rushville, just east of the Webb school building, and the second one will be held at 2 p. m. in the stock pens at Carthage.

The purpose of the demonstrations is to show how to distinguish grades of wool on the sheep's back, so as to be able to eliminate from the breeding flock, ewes which carry a poor grade of wool. This will raise the standard of the flock.

The demonstrations grow out of the wool pool which has been conducted by the Rush County Farm Bureau for the past three years. It has been found that wool sells on grades and that there is a wide variation in price, depending upon the grade. Hence, it is important, it is pointed out, that farmers produce the best grade of wool possible.

SUIT ON AN ACCOUNT

George C. Alexander and Company are plaintiffs in a suit filed in Justice Stech's court against William A. Billings, the complaint being on an account, demanding $25. The case has been set for Monday morning at ten o'clock.

AMERICANS EXCEL AS LANDSCAPISTS

Best Paintings of This Kind Are to be Found Here, Randolph LaSalle
Coats Says

HAS EXHIBIT AT COURT HOUSE

Indiana Artist Has Returned to Indianapolis to be Identified With
State's Interests

"The best landscape painters in the world today are to be found in America," said Randolph LaSalle Coats, who is in town this week with an exhibition of his paintings which opened yesterday in the D. A. R. room at the court house.

Mr. Coats, who has recently returned to his old home in Indianapolis, after a stay in Europe, is a native of the state, and has returned to be identified with its interests.

"There is no place like Indiana," said Mr. Coats with a genial smile.

"And we have some of the best artists in the country right here in our own state," he continued, naming some of the best known resident artists.

"People who expect to see great work among the modern artists of any of the older European countries," said Mr. Coats, "are usually disappointed."

"Art in France, Germany, Italy, as it is painted contemporaneously, is, only in occasional instances, above the mediocre."

"While this condition is no doubt due, in a measure, to the hiatus caused by the World War, during which time art languished and artists were driven into penury and to death on the battlefields, it is also true that it may be attributed to more subtle considerations. To the fact that the spring of artistic inspiration have become arid in the older civilizations."

"At that, of course, we owe much to the ultra-modernists among the French especially, but that art could and does not flourish in the more virgin artistic soil of our country."

"We have a fresher outlook."

"We have more red blood in our artistic veins."

"We are more virile, more powerful. We, also have less fear of academic tradition and do not hesitate to break away and experiment in untrodden fields."

"We have absorbed all that is best in the ultra-modernists and are mixing it with our more vigorous and less sophisticated experiences of life."

"Here in Indiana we have some landscapists who paint as well as they paint anywhere and yet who are without academic restriction. In other words their genius has had the

BLAMES POLITICS FOR INDICTMENTS

Mayor R. O. Johnson of Gary Says
That Wholesale Arrests Are Result of Spite Work

75 WARRANTS ARE SERVED

Boast of Agnes Szabo, 16, That it
Was Easy to Buy Liquor, Started
The Investigation

Gary, Ind., Jan. 23.—"The wholesale arrest of city and county officers on charges of conspiracy to obstruct the prohibition law was political spite work," Mayor R. O. Johnson, one of those arrested, declared today.

"These arrests are absurd. They were launched by political enemies," Johnson said.

The three deputy United States marshals who served 75 warrants in connection with the blanket indictments issued in the Indianapolis federal court, used Mayor Johnson's office as headquarters.

"We have always cooperated with the federal prohibition agents," Johnson asserted. "When they arrived yesterday, I turned over thirty automobiles and officers from the police department to aid in their work. I shall continue to assist them despite the fact that I, myself, am one of those accused in the indictments."

The arrests caused little attention. Gary was quiet and apparently uninterested in the proceedings. The prisoners joked and talked with the federal officers, refusing to take the arrests seriously.

Sixty-seven citizens of Lake County, ranging from the mayor of Gary down to foreign workers of the south side, were released on bonds following their arrests in the alleged giant liquor conspiracy.

With eight indictments still to be served, United States deputy marshals were out early trying to round up the stragglers.

Among those on whom warrants have not been served were Sheriff William H. Olds, of Lake county and his staff. Olds declared he would come to Gary today from Crown Point to accept service.

City officials, many of them among those arrested, aided the federal authorities in their efforts to round up the alleged "rum ring".

Mayor Roswell O. Johnson turned his office over to the government and placed policeman at the disposal of the deputy marshals.

The alleged Gary liquor ring has been under investigation for months. Results of the investigation were laid before a federal grand jury in Indianapolis which returned the indictments.

YEGGS ESCAPE WITH $50,000

Hold up Two Messengers of New York Municipal Bank

New York, Jan. 23.—Four yeggs held up an automobile in charge of two messengers of the Municipal Bank today and escaped with a sum reported to be $50,000.

The holdup was perpetuated in broad daylight. The yeggs' automobile drove up to the bank car and forced the chauffeur to pull up to the curb. Four men with revolvers covered the chauffeur and forced him to drive to a deserted section. The bandits then took possession of the bank car which contained, $50,000, according to the guards, and drove off.

PROPOSAL TO BRING LOG ROLLING TO CITY

Presented by M. V. Spivey, Chairman
of Modern Woodmen Committee,
to Rotary Club

WOULD BE HELD JULY 3 AND 4

M. V. Spivey spoke to the Rotary club today noon at the Social club regarding the proposal to bring the district log rolling of the Modern Woodmen lodge to Rushville July 3 and 4. The Rotary club had previously gone on record as favoring the project, when it was presented once before, and Mr. Spivey emphasized what would be required of Rushville citizens.

He stated that the district Log Rolling association was organized at Rushville twenty-five years and that ever since that time, a log rolling had been held annually. The executive committee which will select the place for the meeting is anxious to name Rushville if the requirements can be met. A committee composed of Mr. Spivey, L. L. Allen, J. L. Cowing, W. O. Feudner and S. L. Trabue has been appointed by the Woodmen lodge to bring the log rolling here. The district takes in a radius of approximately forty miles and would attract about 10,000 people to the city. The event would be in the nature of a Fourth of July celebration.

The remainder of the regular meeting of the Rotary club today was taken up with short talks by Rotarians regarding meetings of other clubs they had attended and on other matters.

EXPIRES AT ROSWELL N. M.

Osmer M'Daniel of Mays Had Gone
There For His Health

The body of Osmer McDaniel of Mays, who died Saturday evening at Roswell, New Mexico, was expected to arrive at the late residence in Mays today, and the burial took place at the Blue River Cemetery near Mays.

The deceased had left his home in Mays only a few weeks ago for Roswell, where he went for his health, having been a sufferer from tuberculosis, which resulted in his death.

Mr. McDaniel was born and spent most of his boyhood near Occident, and was well known in that part of the county. He is survived by a widow, mother, two brothers and one sister.

TUTTLE GIVES $100 BOND

William Tuttle, a colored man of Carthage appeared this morning in the circuit court on a charge of assault and battery and gave bond in the sum of $100. The charge against him was filed December 22, following an alleged affair between him and another colored man. It is said that he left Carthage following the accident, and returned recently.

SUIT ON AN ACCOUNT

A suit on an account has been filed by Fred A. Caldwell against Harry Beaver, the demand being for $66. The case was filed in Justice Stech's court, and has been set for trial on January 31, at one o'clock.

SOLDIER BONUS BILL AMENDED

House Of Representatives Votes
To Include Spanish American
War Veterans

CHANGES REFERENDUM PLAN

Senate Kills Measure To Return
Money From Automobile Licenses
To The Counties

(By United Press)

Indianapolis Ind., Jan. 23.—The state soldier bonus bill was amended in the house of representatives today to make it include veterans of the Spanish American war.

The amendment was attached on motion of Representative Harrison of Indianapolis.

Friends of the measure fear the provision will act to defeat the question when it goes to a popular vote for which the bill provides.

The measure would provide a sum of $10 for each month of service in the Spanish American and the World War be given each veteran. The amendment was carried by a vote of 57 to 30.

An amendment providing that the measure will be adopted if it receives a favorable vote of a majority voting in a referendum was also adopted. The new amendment nullified one previously which defined a favorable vote as a majority of all persons voting in the next regular election.

A proposed amendment introduced by Representative Edgar Perkins of Indianapolis to include student officers training corps met with defeat.

It is estimated that the inclusion of the Spanish American war veterans will add several thousand dollars to the bonus.

The bill is now ready for third reading in the house and no other amendment can be submitted until it reaches the senate if passed by the house.

Prohibition forces received another boost in the senate when a measure providing a fine and imprisonment for persons found guilty of selling poison liquor was passed by a dissenting vote.

Senator Cann's bill to abolish the state free employment bureau passed by a vote of 43 to 1. Democrats and Republicans alike moved to do away with the board.

A vote of 29 to 18 along party lines killed the democratic bill to consolidate the banking commission with the office of state auditor.

The senate killed the movement to return automobile license money to counties when it voted to strike out the enacting clause of the Shirley bill for that system.

The wage garnishee bill introduced in the legislature by Senator Swain of Pendleton drew the fire of labor today.

Salaries or incomes of individuals could be attached for debt on the measure. The garnishee system always has been strongly opposed by labor interests and in past legislatures has been the center of bitter

WOODMEN NAME COMMITTEE

Will Push Plans to Bring Log Roll-
ing Here July 3 and 4

A committee of five, has been selected from the Modern Woodmen lodge, who will co-operate with the Rotarians and Kiwanians in securing the State Log Rolling to be held in Rushville July 3 and 4.

The annual log rolling contest includes representatives from all Woodmen lodges of the state, and is a notable event. The first log rolling ever held in the state was held in Rushville 22 years ago, and the event has never been repeated here. The date for the annual contest has been decided, and Rushville will be given the opportunity of entertaining the hundreds of visitors, providing proper co-operation among the business men, and others. The committee is composed of Samuel L. Trabue, W. O. Feudner, J. L. Cowing, M. V. Spivey and L. L. Allen.

EXTRA SESSION OF CONGRESS UNLIKELY

Political Parties Have Decided To Give Nation Rest of Nine Months From Legislative Activities

MANY BILLS TO BE HELD UP

Washington, January 23.—Assurances have been given by democrats, republicans, and progressives that an extra session of the new congress soon after March 4 is extremely unlikely. The decision to give the nation a rest of nine months from national legislative activities means:

1—There will be no action toward amendment of the Esch-Cummins railroad supervision bill until 1924.

2—Only the Leffort-Anderson and Caper bills will be enacted to aid the farmers.

3—The ship subsidy faces practically certain death and shipping relief will have to be handled in the new 1924 congress, if at all.

The progressive move to change the date of congressional and national inaugurations, regulatory provisions against oil corporations to control gasoline prices, and other pending legislations is expected to be held up.

Most of the appropriation bills are through. The four remaining probably can be pushed through in six weeks.

PIMPPLY? WELL, DON'T BE

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with a "dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 15c and 30c.

PRESERVED FROM EVIL:—
The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil; He shall preserve thy soul.
Psalm 121: 7.

Importers Confounded

The importers are confounded by the trend which foreign trade of the United States is taking under the protective tariff law, because it is not running true to their predictions. The most dire results were predicted during the last political campaign, in which those who profit on the cheaply produced goods of Europe by charging exorbitant prices in America, asserted that America's foreign trade would go to the eternal bow wows because of the "tariff wall" which would be erected.

But the rapid increase in volume of America's foreign trade since the new tariff law became effective has left them without an adequate argument even though some free trade newspapers are endeavoring to show that the tariff has had no effect whatsoever on the export trade—this in the face of the vicious campaign against the law, the backbone of which was that the law would kill the foreign market for American-made goods.

It has always been the contention of those who favor a protective tariff that if the American producer be assured of control in his home market he can devote considerably more time and energy to expanding his foreign markets; that he can not work abroad if he is in danger of having the foreign competitor rob him of his home market; that control of the home market means maximum production and therefore lower unit cost, whereby sales abroad are aided; that the surplus over home demand is the material with which foreign markets are built up.

The present tariff law is rapidly proving the soundness of such a view. Despite all the dismal predictions which were made of losing foreign markets if the Fordney-McCumber tariff became a law, exports continue on the increase because American producers may now proceed with confidence. Nor have the rates proved so high that foreigners are unable to get into our market, as the figures plainly show.

The vast sums of money expended by importers in distributing propaganda to defeat the present law; the great sums spent in political campaigns for the election of those who would continue the policy which under the old rule has always been ruinous when permitted free operation; the speeches and editorials condemning the policy—all appear to have been a dead loss, for the law is making good. And not a dead loss, either, for they are serving to convince the American people, when confronted with the facts concerning the operation of the policy, that its opponents did not know what they were talking about and the law having discredited them, they will not be very formidable opponents in the next presidential campaign.

Making Men of Boys

When General Baden-Powell started the Boy Scout movement he was quietly ridiculed by many incredulous people.

Today he is regarded as a benefactor of the human race.

Every one knows that you can take a weakling, put him in the army and keep him there for a few years, and he will come out a reasonably strong and healthy man. It is the rigid and systematic military training that does it.

The training accorded the Boy Scouts is much along the lines of that pursued in the army, with sufficient variation to appeal to the juvenile mind.

There is a surplus of enthusiasm bottled up in every boy's chest that requires an escape valve.

If there is a Boy Scout organization in town, it affords the necessary outlet.

If there is no such organization the boy will find an outlet elsewhere—on the street, "with the gang", or possibly in some kind of mischief dear to the young heart.

Boys will be boys until they grow to man's estate. The manner of their growth, however, depends upon the manhood and the womanhood of today.

Every town should have a Boy Scout company.

They produce better men, and thereby elevate the race in general.

MIXED JURY HEARS CASE

Muncie, Ind., Jan. 23—The first "mixed" jury in the history of Delaware county heard its first case and after electing a negro preacher as foreman voted on the first ballot for conviction of Mike Sholey, a jitney bus driver, charged with profanity. Sholey refused the aid of a lawyer, pleaded his own case and closed with the remark "I place my case in your hands and let your conscience be your guide."

This Jumpy Weather Tells Fuel Truth

SUNSHINE one minute. Likely as not a blizzard or a thunderstorm the next. Damp, soggy air shifting in a wink to cold dryness, while old Uncle Thermometer jumps up and down with a quick-change suddenness that outstrips the nimblest guesses of the weather man.

That's the test that brings most sharply to the surface the difference between the smooth, even steadiness of Silver Flash Gasoline and the fitful, weather-ruffled unreliability of poor, kerosenish substitutes.

This surface contrast is convincing, but be sure that its lesson goes far enough.

Realize that the temperature of motor explosions reaches into thousands of degrees. If a fuel is so unsound that its explosiveness is interfered with by the change of comparatively a very few degrees of outside temperature, can it possibly be really fit for its duty at any time?

Silver Flash gasoline proves itself to be the only proper year 'round fuel by its performance during the special seasons of adverse stresses. The uniform qualities of quick starting, smooth, missless running, and full-powered explosiveness that persevere under difficult conditions are the very virtues that you need most when under the most favorable conditions, because these are the qualities that can only come from inner goodness—the clean, keroseneless, carbon-free, full-explosiveness as necessary to long-run motor health in one season as another.

It's more economical to use the best fuel this season and every season—

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 23—From appearances now in the state high school basketball situation, the Indianapolis teams do not have a very high ranking in the fast and furious net sport that is played in Indiana. Of the local five Manual has shown the best stuff so far and must be considered more favorably than either Tech or Shortridge.

It is rather hard to diagnose Tech's case. The team started practice early and kept away from the early season games so that the football men could work into the scheme of things, but the hopes of the Green and White have been dashed to earth each time they have taken the floor. The last, sad story was told at Columbus and in no uncertain terms.

The team has shifted about considerably since the opener but none of the shifts seem to add much power. The Indianapolis teams usually improve, however as the season advances and there is not much doubt that such will be the case this year.

Manual has shown good form especially in defeating Columbus some time ago. Manual has lost to Kokomo and Franklin only by three and two point margins. It is a team of some real possibilities and, under the coaching of Rowland Jones former Butler player, may develop into a real outfit before the tourneys start.

Shortridge looks better than in seasons past but is not strong enough to stand up under the terrific competition that they may meet over the state. The team still has far to go in order to be placed with the top notchers.

In the inter-city games, Manual has won over Shortridge while Shortridge sprang a surprise and beat Tech. Manual and Tech meet today in the final of the city school contests. Manual is the favorite.

Every season there is talk of a Marion county team such as Ben Davis, Valley Mills, Broad Ripple, West Newton taking the sectional but is always the Capital City teams that have fought it out to represent the section in the regionals.

It is doubtful if in any season there has been so many evenly matched teams out over the state. At present, there seems to be one outstanding team, and that is Vincennes. The "Alice boys" have set a fast pace from the start and impressive victories have been won by them over a number of the best teams in Indiana.

Brains Make Champs in Sports

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)
New York, Jan. 23—"Many ball games are won during the season by crossing ball players who think in the same groove all the time," John McGraw in his "My Thirty Years in Baseball."

The Giant leader referred to the trap into which the Yankees were led deliberately three times by his players during the world's series.

There are many "groove-thinkers" in baseball, but they are not confined to the professional diamond pastime. They are in every sport. The inability to think in other than an established line of thought is the margin between a champion and a dud.

If Charley White could think fast and with some originality he would have been the lightweight champion of the world long ago and probably would be in possession of the title now.

Benny Leonard would not be the lightweight king now if Lew Tendler used his thinking apparatus in Jersey City last summer.

Jack Britton would never have been able to hold on as welterweight champion if he had followed a mechanical habit in the ring without using his head.

Yale had eleven intelligent young men on her football team last fall but the machine couldn't seem to think as a unit. It worked mechanically and it lost.

Tom Thorp, coach of the New York University eleven, saw most of the big games in the east and he acted as an official at the three post-season games on the Pacific coast.

Kineaid and Baker, two of the Southern California backs, are two of the finest players he has seen in a long time, he said on his return east.

Stockton and Gonzaga backfield stars, and Anderson and Degrot, California linemen, were also highly praised by him.

Southern California had a finely coached team and the University of California must have had a whale of a team to beat them, was his opinion.

Johnny Weismuller, the young Chicago swimming sensation was not only a headliner of 1922, but he was almost a marvel.

His feat in making thirty-three new records in one season is almost unparalleled in any branch of sport.

His stupendous ability in the water is not the result of a super-body and extraordinary strength but is caused by the use of new strokes that get more results out of ordinary strokes, in the opinion of Joe Ruddy, the veteran swimming star and great polo player of the New York Athletic Club.

Ruddy believes that Charley Daniels, the former water wiz would have made records just as fast, if he had been able to use the modern strokes.

Willie Hoppe, now that he is back on the billiard throne, is expected to remain for another ten years or so as the cue champion.

The nervous ailment which affected his arm some time ago and handicapped him noticeably in the last championship tournament, has been relieved and he says he is sound as ever.

Hoppe has lived too well and trained too seriously to be losing himself at his age and if his nerves do not get him, he would be the best in his profession for a good many more years.

Hittin' 'Em and Missin' 'Em

JOHN GOT THE STOGIES

John Geraghty, coach of the coaches, who coaches the coaches, will have his hands full in making 'em keep training rules. Fifteen minutes after the coaches organized their wee small team of 200 pounders, John walked out on the street, and caught Coach Means, pulling away on a stogie. Of course, it perfectly is alright for a coach to smoke, provided that the coach isn't playing, so John relieved his players of the cigars, and smoked 'em himself.

COACHES WANT A GAME

The coaches will probably play their first game with the coaches of Hancock county. Hittin' 'em would gamble that a team composed of other teachers could beat John Geraghty's coaches. Try this line-up—John Moore, Circleville principal; Harry McKinsie, Manilla; A. F. Cotton, Rushville; Cliff Mitchell, Raleigh and C. C. Richey of Milroy.

CAN FAIRVIEW BEAT ALQUINA?

WATCH MOSCOW BOYS

When it comes to stoppin' a team from a winning streak, it takes Moscow. Last week, Moscow headed off Mt. Auburn from winning a dozen straight, and then comes the story in the game last Friday, where Moscow stopped Newport, who was headed for eleven straight. Now, Moscow, we're sorry, but you can't find any team in Rush county with a record of more than two or three straight, so you will have to keep on going outside of the county for your big game.

WE WONDER WHO LOST

The editor of one of the high school papers around here, tells Hittin' 'em rather confidentially, that following a game recently, one of the rooters who accompanied the team to a nearby town, was broke when the game was over, and was so badly "on his uppers", that he could step on a dime and tell whether it was heads or tails.

IT'S A FUNNY WORLD—

YOU CAN'T PLEASE 'EM ALL
Not a student, but a royal supporter of R. H. S., takes the liberty to drop us a few lines, calling us down for our remarks, which we pass on to you: "Hittin' 'em and Missin' 'em—I've been reading Hittin' 'em and Missin' 'em from the start. I think it is a great thing for the basketball fan, but I didn't like the way you razed "our team" in last Saturday's paper. I have followed the team for some time—I seen last year's team bring home victory and this year's team meet defeat—but I am always backing the team. I think they will win the sectional this year, anyhow it all depends on the draw. Remember one year when little Sandusky upset the dope, well dope doesn't count much and when you must use dope why not give RUSHVILLE the inside?

Suppose Connersville or Rushville draws the hard run of games? Who will win? Then too as a Basket Ball fan, I think we should all boost Rushville, stand back of coach Jones and his men, let them know that Rushville is backing them, Boost "OUR TEAM". Talk "OUR TEAM", Follow "OUR TEAM" and HELP "OUR TEAM" WIN THE SECTIONAL. Let us all boost and yell, then if we don't win we will be willing to back the sectional winner to the last game. Every one boost our Rushville High School Basket Ball Team to VICTORY. All together, YEA RUSHVILLE, LET'S GO.

DON'T LET 'EM KID YOU WATERLOO

We are reminded that Fairview is going to have a big tourney Saturday. Eight towns, will begin as follows: Gings vs Glenwood; Fairview vs Orange; Everton vs Alquina; Waterloo vs Bentonville. The F. H. S. Chatter, the high school paper at Fairview, has it all figured out. The final game will be with Fairview and Alquina.

There's one place in Indiana where Hittin' 'em would like to be Friday night—that's Anderson. We're pickin' Anderson, but on that night it might be Vincennes.

EXTRA—NEWS ITEM

Hittin' 'em just got a radio call from the high school building. Lakin, basketball player, who didn't measure up to standard on English, will get another chance. He was given a condition on the subject.

DON'T LET FRIENDSHIP KEEP YOU FROM BEATIN' 'EM

It will almost be like two Rush county teams playing each other Friday night, when Rushville meets Shelbyville here. On the Shelbyville line-up are two real stars, Hodges at center and Barnett at forward, both living just southwest of here, who attend school at Shelbyville, on account of the railroad accommodations offering them better service than toward Rushville. These two Rush county boys belong here, but that darn old railroad wouldn't change their schedule.

GOOD NEWS AT LAST

Rushville is preparing to spring a surprise. They're gonna beat Shelbyville. A few weeks ago Shelbyville defeated them down there by six points, and there is such a chance of the Scarlet aggregation getting back on the band wagon again. Shelby has been defeated, you know.

BIG OFFERING IN BASKETBALL HERE

Shelbyville Comes Friday Night For
Game With Rushville and Elwood
on Saturday Night

COLTS TO PLAY BOTH NIGHTS

One of the best offerings in basketball will be given to local fans this week end, as the Rushville high school team will tackle two strong aggregations, meeting Shelbyville here Friday and Elwood here Saturday night.

The second team of the high school will play in the curtain raiser each game, meeting Glenwood here Friday night, and the strong Morton high school second team of Richmond in the preliminary game on Saturday night.

Both Shelbyville and Elwood are rated in the Big Ten list of Indiana schools, and the locals will have to exert themselves in order to hold them down. On Friday, Elwood plays at Connersville, and each team will enter the game here Saturday night on even terms as far as playing two games in a row.

Shelbyville plays Technical of Indianapolis Wednesday, and will have one day of rest before coming here. Rushville has a good chance to defeat them, and this game is expected to be a close one from start to finish. Elwood, is rated as one of the best in the state, and as far as the locals are concerned, they are an unknown foe.

MOSCOW KEEPS UP VICTORIOUS MARCH

Orange Township Lads, Without
Services of Two First Line Men,
Trim St. Paul

MEET WESTPORT WEDNESDAY

Moscow high school basketball team continued their victorious march Saturday night, against St. Paul, winning easily by the score of 27 to 13. The game was played on the floor at Blue Ridge. The first half ended 16 to 8 and although St. Paul had a much larger team, they could not get near the basket for markers.

Moscow was without the services of Coleman and B. Hugnerford, who have been going good lately—although Hungerford got into the game for awhile. Gosnell proved to be the scoring ace and the defense of Captain Tillison and I. Hungerford was hard to surpass. The team, however, showed the effects of the hard battle of the night before. Whisman, substitute forward, got into the game and played well.

Moscow plays Westport Wednesday night in what should be a real battle as the Decatur lads have been cutting a wide swathe so far. Then on Friday night Raleigh will be met in a return game. Raleigh was defeated at Moscow in the opening game of the season, 27 to 9, but the teams are now more evenly matched, and better balanced.

FIGHT RESULTS

Jersey City—Harry Greb, American light heavyweight champion, easily outpointed Billy Shade, California, in 12 rounds, no decision bout.

Detroit—Johnny Mendelshom Milwaukee middleweight and Sid Barabarian, local boy, fought a slow ten round draw.

At Indianapolis—Louis Lavell of Anderson, Johnny Lucus of St. Louis, ten round draw.

K. O. Circus of Pittsburg out-boxed Jackie Barnhart of Terre Haute in ten rounds.

Kid Sparks of Terre Haute out-boxed Don Carson of Indianapolis in ten rounds.

Young Carpenter New Orleans knocked out Young Murphy of Mt. Jackson in first round.

A FEATHER IN HIS HAT

Cincinnati, Ohio, Jan. 23.—The American beau brummell of 1923 will wear a feather in his hat if the clothiers designers in convention here act upon the recommendation of their convention.

"The style of mens clothing should be relieved by decorating derbies with pink feathers," the committee reported.

Brown Derbies call for lavender feathers, the report said.

Miss Dorothy Davis entertained at a high noon dinner party Sunday at her home near Orange. The guests were the Misses Lavonne Nelson of Carthage and Marjorie May of Orange, and Finley Nelson and George Gray of Carthage.

The Psi Iota Xi sorority will enjoy a pitch-in supper at the home of Miss Virginia Haydon Wednesday evening. All the members are urged to be present at the home of Miss Haydon in North Main street by 5:30 o'clock, so that dinner may be served at six o'clock.

The American Literary Club will be entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. P. McCarty in North Harrison street. The meeting will be called at two o'clock and all the members are urged to be present. An interesting program has been planned for this meeting.

The regular meeting of the Tri Kappa sorority was held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Walter E. Smith in North Harrison street. During the business session it was reported that $172.00 was cleared from the Charity Ball given by the sorority a few weeks ago. Other matters of importance were also discussed at this meeting. A delicious luncheon was served by the hostess during the social hour.

Mrs. Louis Lambert was hostess to the members of the Monday Circle, Monday afternoon at her home in East Seventh street. The program for discussion of this meeting was based on "Cuba" and two very interesting papers were given on the subject, one by Mrs. Vern Norris on "Description and History of Cuba," who made her talk more interesting by the fact that a few years ago she visited in Cuba and was familiar with conditions there. She also had many pictures of Cuban life and scenery which were shown to the guests at this meeting. The other talk was given by Mrs. J. B. Kinsinger on "Social and Economic Conditions in Cuba." Her paper was also excellent from every standpoint. Following the two talks a general discussion was entered into by all the members and a delightful social hour was enjoyed.

SEEK FUND TO CONVICT GUILTY VIGILANTES

Labor Unions Want $3,000,000 To Prosecute Citizens Committee Guilty Of Lynching Workers

TO TAKE PART OF EARNINGS

Harrison, Ark., Jan. 23.—A three million dollar fund to prosecute the "citizens' committee"—the new government in the Ozark hills was sought today by labor unions.

The fund will be used to arrest and convict vigilantes guilty of the lynching of E. C. Grigor and the flogging and deportation of scores of other striking railroad workers, according to the Federated Shop Crafts of Fort Smith, where the gigantic prosecution plan was launched.

Every shop union in the country will be called on to set aside one percent of the earnings of each worker during the next thirty days for the fund.

Labor also will fight constituted officials who are members of the "citizens' committee" according to reports here. Prosecution of these officials will be sought it was reported.

The vigilantes prepared for an investigation by a committee from the state legislature. The committee will probe lynching of Grigor and other outbreaks in connection with the situation which resulted in a mob of 1,500 farmers and business men from Northern Arkansas gathering here Monday Jan. 15 to prevent paralysis of the Meandering railroad, the Missouri and North Arkansas.

AMERICANS EXCEL AS LANDSCAPISTS

opportunity to express itself freely and naturally.

"The American artist can and does travel and live abroad. But he is apt to be more interested in seeing the life and landscape as it presents itself to his new world eyes than trying to adapt himself to the artistic canons and ideals of the modern European painters who have very little to tell him or, indeed, to tell the world.

"I see a great future for American art. And a greater for Indiana art if our own people will understand that they have great art right at home, at their own doors, and will encourage and foster that art in the proper manner."

Mr. Coats' current display in the D. A. R. room is interesting as a demonstration of his remarks. The canvasses there shown, painted while in Europe this summer, are typically American in their feeling, method and handling. When reaching Paris last summer he at once went to St. Jean du Doigt on the Brittany coast where, with several other well known American artists he painted through the summer.

His virile style and bold and brilliant use of color, characteristic of Indiana artists lent itself admirably to the painting of the sea on this picturesque and historic coast.

And especially is he successful in depicting the movement and the spirit of the ocean in its differing moods and aspects—The dash of spray, the group of small boats swinging at anchor in a sheltered cove, the beat on the surf, the pound of the waves, the wonder and beauty and great colorful charm of the water as it surges upon and caresses the rocks and the sands—all this Mr. Coats puts into his pictures and all is admirably transcribed in paint for his inland friends to see.

Next summer Mr. Coats will be in Provincetown where he will assist James R. Hopkins in conducting summer painting classes.

Mr. Coats, who has been identified with art interests in Indiana for a number of years, will be given a tea on Sunday afternoon, January 28, by the Indiana Artist's club, of which he is one of the founders and present members.

SEC. DENBY WANTS TO "MODERNIZE" 13 SHIPS

Urges House Naval Committee Immediately To Appropriates $6,500,000 To Carry Out Program

TO KEEP PACE WITH JAPAN

Washington, Jan. 22.—Secretary of Navy Denby urged before the house naval committee the immediate appropriation of $6,500,000 to "modernize" the thirteen capital ships to be retained under the treaty of Washington.

"Next year the navy will ask for an additional $28,600,000 to complete the modernization program and to keep pace with the navies of Great Britain and Japan," he said.

Denby said that modernization of ships would be proper under the disarmament treaty.

"Great Britain and Japan," he said, "began to modernize their navies before the Washington conference."

Denby stated approximately $200,000,000 a year was being saved by the United States as a result of abandonment of the 1916 naval program.

County Unit Law as Applied To The Rush County Schools

that the county unit school law proposes to abandon all township schools and erect four new buildings in the corners of the county or at the county seat is so extremely ridiculous that it deserves no further comment.

The county unit school law proposes to use the same ordinary intelligence in dealing with school affairs that is exercised in other public matters. Where, Mr. School Patron, do you attend church? Where do you attend lodge? Where do you buy your dry goods and groceries? Where is your bank located? In general where is your community center? You will not permit your township pride to prevent you from passing over imaginary lines in your business dealings. Then why not send your children, as about ninety percent of the children of the county are sent, to school where they will have the greatest educational advantages without any regard to township lines?

When your children attend school outside your township, why should you not pay the same school tax rate as all other taxpayers who are patrons of the same school and without any regard to township lines? Does your physician charge you a different fee when you go to his office for medical services just because you live outside his township? Does your banker charge you a higher or lower rate of interest because you are out of your township? Is your freight rate any higher or lower than that of your neighbor who lives on an adjoining farm but in a different township? The county unit school law will correct this defect.

The county farmers' federation since its organization has saved its members many thousands of dollars through its systems of co-operative buying and marketing. The county school unit system in a similar way would save to the taxpayers large sums of money in the purchase of school supplies and by buying only such supplies as are needed. Also the law provides that after the expiration of the term of office of the first board that the second board shall serve without pay, similar to the present township advisory boards and the county council. This would be an additional saving of about seven thousand dollars per year. In this county more than a hundred thousand dollars have been wantonly wasted in needless expenditure for school grounds, architects' plans, buildings and their equipment, all within the last twenty years. An expenditure of another hundred thousand dollars is now being contemplated on buildings which undoubtedly would never be built under the county unit system, because a county board would hesitate to erect buildings at county expense on locations far removed from community centers and where in all probability they would be abandoned in a few years.

The county unit law does not contemplate any radical changes in the schools as they are now conducted except to correct evident defects and make them more efficient. This law is for the purpose of changing the school government to harmonize with forty years of school progress.

NEWS OF DEATH RECEIVED

Young Son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilson Dies At North Madison

Mrs. Wilbur Wilson received word this morning of the death of Paul Wilson, twenty-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilson of Prescott, Arizona, which occurred at the home of her brother, Jerome Champion of North Madison, Ind. Mrs. Wilson was formerly Miss Ruth Champion of this city and is a niece of Mrs. Wilbur Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilson have been in Arizona on account of their health and the latter's brother and family were taking care of the child. The baby is survived by the parents and one brother Lawrence and several other relatives. Death was caused by tubercular meningitis. Mrs. Wilbur Wilson and Mrs. B. W. Reynolds will go to North Madison to attend the funeral.

FORMER RESIDENT IS DEAD

Mrs. Martha Bainbridge Expires At Her Home In Greensburg

Relatives here have received word of the death of Mrs. Martha Bainbridge, aged 65 years wife of Milton Bainbridge, who died Monday at her home in Greensburg. The deceased had been ill for only three weeks suffering with heart trouble. Mrs. Bainbridge was a former resident of this county and was very well known in this city. She is survived by the husband and an adopted son Harry Caldwell.

The funeral services will be conducted Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock at the late residence in Greensburg and burial will take place in a cemetery there.

SOLDIER BONUS BILL AMENDED

fight.

Another bill which will precipitate a storm in the assembly was being drafted for introduction. It was officially recognized chiropractors and put them on the same plane now occupied by medical doctors. The bill would create a board of chiropractic examiners and would prescribe qualifications for chiropractors. In past assemblies, it has been strong opposed by the medical profession.

Radical changes in the law governing licensing of automobiles are proposed in a bill introduced by Representatives Post and Murden. The measure would double the license fees on all automobiles other than pleasure cars. County auditors would issue the licenses and counties would receive funds originating within their boundaries up to $50,000, with provision for the remainder to be turned into the highway commission fund.

Members of the legislature are slowly abandoning their idea of repealing the absent voters law and are turning their attention to means of amending it to prevent its abuse. Representative Kenney proposed a bill which would permit voters who will be absent from their voting places on election day to cast their ballot with the county clerk any time between the fifteenth day and the first day before election. It would abolish voting by mail and by persons who live temporarily away from their voting places.

Complete revision of public health laws is provided in a bill introduced by Dr. J. N. Hurty, a member of the house of representatives.

JUDGE SAVES HIS OWN COUNTY $200 A MONTH

Establishes a Humanitarian Principle of Restoring Fatherless Children to Their Mother

IS ALLOWED $2.50 A WEEK

Evansville, Ind., Jan. 23.—By means of a humanitarian principle of restoring fatherless children to their mother instead of sending them to orphan asylums, Judge Lockyear during 1922 saved Vanderburgh county $200 a month.

This was accomplished by placing the children in their homes with an allowance of $2.50 a week to their mothers.

Judge Lockyear took the position that institutions throughout the state have been profiteering from their orphan charges by reaping profits from their labor. The institutions also collect the county allowance for the orphans after the children become self-supporting, according to Judge Lockyear.

By returning children to their mothers, the county is not required to pay the allowance after they become self-supporting. In addition to this, the children receive the benefit of home training and escape the stigma that accompanies some orphanages.

HALF MILLION FOR HOMES

Muncie, Ind., Jan. 23.—A total of $542,828 was spent in Muncie in 1922 on building work in the resident section. This does not include the erection of a new Elk's home, Masonic temple and Bethel synagogue. The highest cost residence was the Grace Episcopal church manse which cost $12,000.

WATER BOY TO INSPECTOR

What Are You Missing?

NO one can want anything until he knows of its existence. That is why ancient folk managed to live fairly contented lives without window glass, soap, automobiles, stoves, toothbrushes, telephones and so many of the things we consider the bare necessities of life.

Advertising has done more than one thing to make this era of ours so rich in comforts and conveniences. To advertising is directly due much of the multiplication of products and service which are now at the disposal of everyone.

There is no denying the fact that advertising has ironed out the mechanics of existence. It has made life easier and more pleasant by bringing to our attention countless necessities which years ago a king's ransom could not have bought.

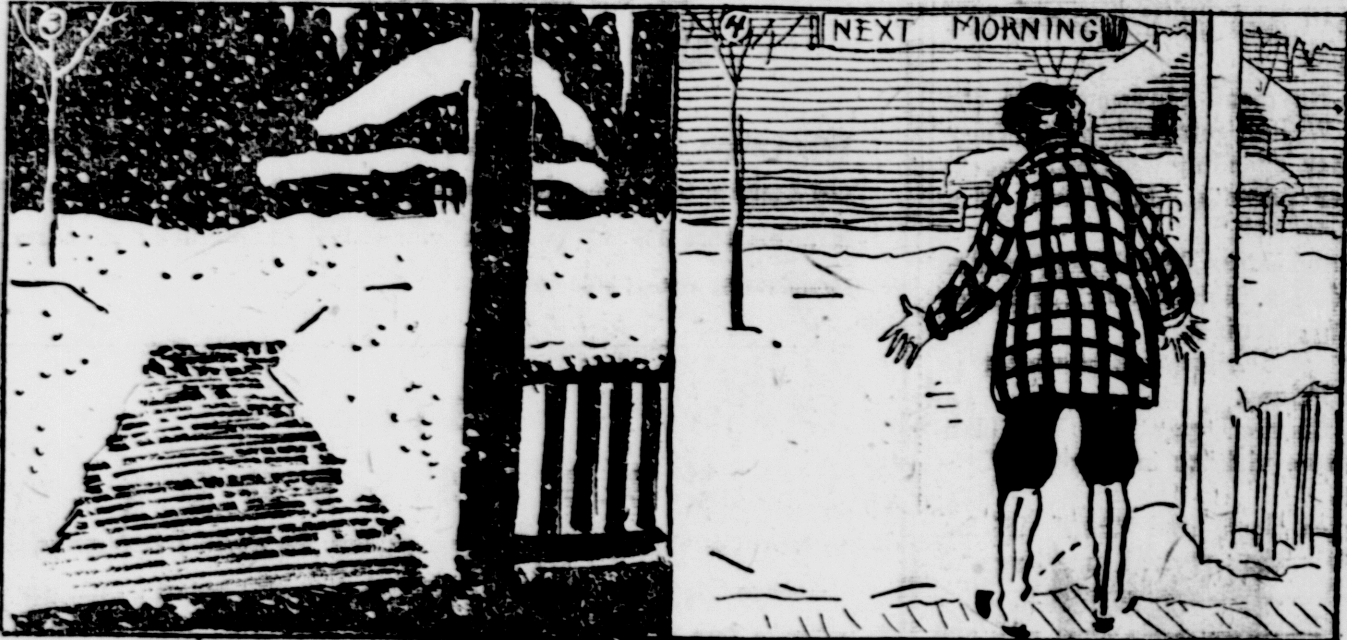

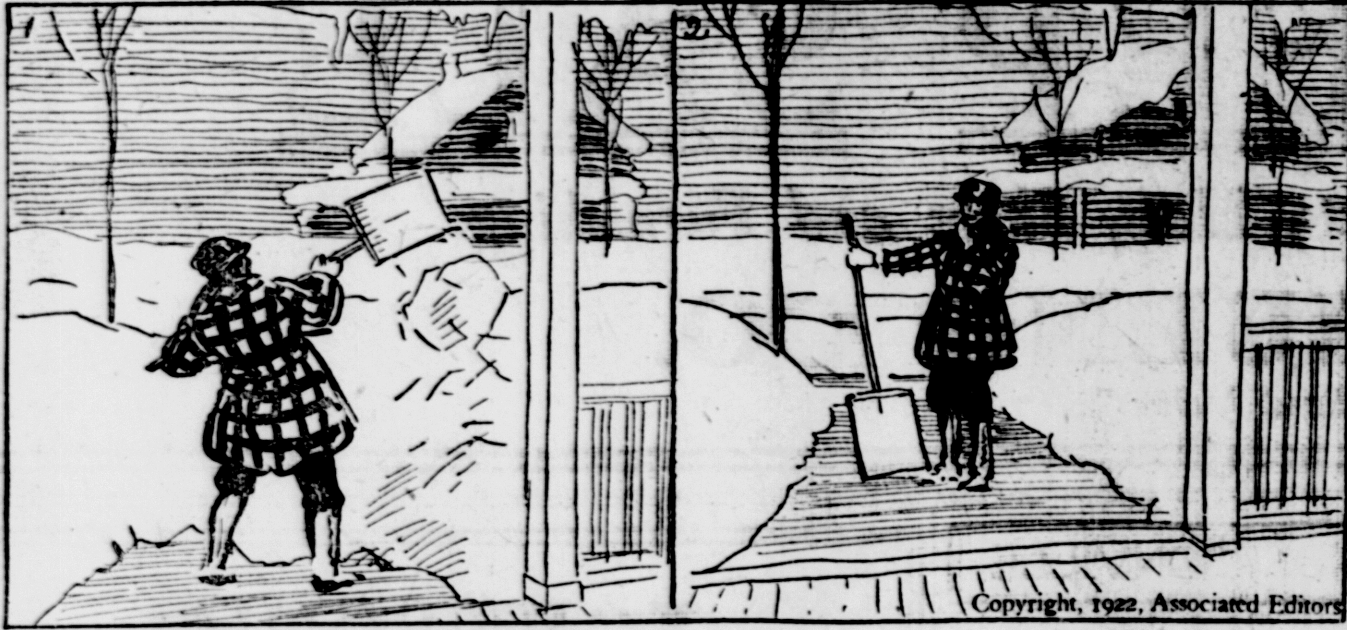

Folks dress better, eat better, sleep better and live better because of local newspaper advertising.

IN THE MIDST OF CAMPAIGN

Haynes Plans To Draw Net Tighter Against Drugs And Rum

San Francisco, Jan. 23.—Prohibition Commissioner Roy Haynes today was in the midst of his campaign against illicit liquor and narcotic evil, on the Pacific coast.

Haynes spent Monday in conference with Samuel Rutter, state prohibition director, and other dry agents here, planning a method of drawing tighter the net against both drugs and rum.

The greatest obstacle in the way of effective enforcement of the Harrison narcotic act is smuggling from foreign countries, Haynes said. He then announced that much of his attention in Southern California would be devoted to the liquor and narcotic smuggling traffic across the Mexican border.

Eaten regularly each day, Kellogg's Bran will permanently relieve constipation; it will free you from dangerous toxic poisons that lead to 90% of all human illness; it will remove the cause and sweeten a bad breath; it will clear a pimply complexion through its work on the bowels. In fact, Kellogg's Bran, through its natural action as a bulk, indigestible agent, will tone-up the whole system!

If you knew exactly what constipation means from a medical viewpoint you would lose no time eating Kellogg's Bran yourself and serving it daily to your family. And, Kellogg's is actually delicious, its nut-like flavor adding greatly to the enjoyment of eating cereals. Eat at least two table-spoonfuls each day; in chronic cases, with each meal.

There are many attractive ways to serve Kellogg's Bran. Eat it in winter with hot milk as a cereal. Or, mix it with cereals before serving. Many housewives cook it with cereals, in each case adding two table-spoonfuls for each person. You will also enjoy the nut-like flavor of Kellogg's Bran when it has been sprinkled over hot or cold cereals.

You have missed some of the joys of life if you have not eaten raisin bread, muffins, griddle-cakes, etc., made with Kellogg's Bran. Recipes are printed on each box.

Don't delay your fight against constipation; don't lose a minute in the great battle against illness! You can buy Kellogg's Bran from all grocers and you can have it served in individual packages at first-class hotels, restaurants and clubs.

A MUSEMENTS

Last Time Here Today

He was a typical down-and-out showing plainly all the evidences of a hard life in a world which had treated him with scant courtesy, and so, being what he was, "Pedro the Putty Face" found a temporary home in the "Port of Missing Men", which Rex Ingham established for his South American cabaret characters who appear in "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," a Metro version of the famed novel of Vincent Blasco Ibanex, being shown for the last time today at the Princess.

In connection with hundreds of other strange characters, Pedro, who has sailed the seven seas without finding a wind that would blow color into his drag-dyed face, characterized his brief advent into the movies as the softest snap he had ever run into. In addition to drawing his "three a day" and not being required to "droll up" he had plenty of opportunity to see a lot of acting whose novelty appealed to him, and, best of all, he was paid real money for doing the things he liked.

To take care of these "floaters," as they are dubbed in the language of the road, a particular part of the big Metro studio grounds was set apart and as a fitting title for his home of these strange characters from every part of the Globe, it was called the "Port of Missing Men", because its many temporary inhabitants who wished to keep their real identity a secret. As it was only their picturesque appearance that Director Ingram wanted their biographies were whatever they chose to tell.

At The Mystic Again Today

For sheer dramatic power it would be hard to beat "The Fatal Marriage" D. W. Griffith's brilliant picturization of Lord Tennyson's epic poem "Enoch Arden". With Wallace Reid and Lillian Gish in the leading roles "The Fatal Marriage" is being shown at the Mystic today where all those who have memorized the immortal poem at some time or other in their school days will enjoy seeing the famous characters of Tennyson's imagination come to life again upon the screen.

There is a tremendous drama in "The fatal Marriage." There can be no mistake about that. The story of the tragic Enoch who goes off to win his fortune against the pleading of his wife is one that will grip the heart and weave a spell of deepest feeling about you.

There are probably many Enochs in the world today although we hear of them infrequently. The world war made many of them. The Enoch of Tennyson's poem never lapsed in his great love for Annie and their children. But when he was shipwrecked and cast away upon an uncharted island and failed to appear for year, Annie finally abandoned hope of his return and ac-

OBITUARY

Elias Julian, the eldest son of Absalom and Nancy Julian was born the 27th day of Feb. 1846 in Piqua County, Ohio, and departed this life Jan. 19th, 1923 at 5:00 A. M., at the age of 76 years, 10 months and 22 days. His death occurred at the home of his daughter Mrs. Paul Krumlauf who resides in Rush county with whom he has made his home for the past 4 years.

On the 25th of Jan. 1872 Mr. Julian was united in marriage to Harriett E. Dresbach, daughter of Wm. Dresbach a native of Piqua county, Ohio, and to their union has been blessed with eight children, four sons and four daughters. Namely: Milton of Remington, Ind., Milo of Walton, Ind., Guy of Wabash, Ind., and Arthur who departed this life April 14, 1894. Mrs. Cynthia Roush of Plymouth, Ind., Mrs. Amanda Burk of Redcliff, Alberta Canada, who departed this life April 16th, 1919, Mrs. Nancy Krumlauf of Rushville Ind., and Mrs. Ruth Haselby also of Rushville, Ind.

Mr. Julian, at the age of nineteen started out in life for himself and from 1865 until 1870 was engaged in trading speculations in Missouri. On the expiration of that period he disposed of his business interests in Missouri and thence moved to Iroquois County, Illinois when he devoted his time to farming and stock raising. After farming a number of years he purchased 140 acres in that locality which he farmed till the year 1895 when he sold that farm and purchased 240 acres in Benton county, Indiana. In 1912 he retired from actual farm labor and moved to Remington, Ind., where he resided until coming to Rush county.

He was a man of positive convictions and was always ready to encourage any enterprise calculated to prove of public benefit.

This leaves to mourn his death the loving wife, one sister of Calloway, Neb., six children and eight grandchildren.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. W. E. Stanley of Young America. Interment in East Hill cemetery at Rushville. 261

100,000 GERMAN MINERS STRIKING

German Industrial Leaders Again
Call on Workers to Refuse to
Deliver Coal

STRIKE GROWS RAPIDLY

Germany Notifies Allies Doubtful if
She Will be Able to Pay Repara-
tions For Present

(By United Press)

Berlin, Jan. 23—Germany today notified the allies its doubtful if she will be able to pay any more reparations for the present, owing to economic chaos resulting from French occupation of the Ruhr.

Essen, Jan. 23—One hundred thousand Ruhr miners are now on strike against French occupation, mine owners announced today.

German industrial leaders again issued a proclamation calling upon workers to refuse to deliver coal to the invaders, at the hour when Fritz Thyssen and six other coal owners were to go to trial. Thyssen was taken ill.

More and more West Phalanx miners joined the strikers today, six Stinnes mines in the vicinity of Essen closing down because the French refused to hear workers' intercession on behalf of the sick industrial leader, who, it is reported, is to be sentenced to three months in jail.

The mine owners league announced 35,000 workers are out at Stinnes' mines and 30,000 at those of the Thyssen interests alone, while strikers are increasing throughout the occupied area.

Citizens of Essen were in an angry mood today, following the march of a French patrol through the heart of the city, pushing pedestrians off the sidewalks.

Both French and Germans claimed today initial victory in the war of wills that is paralyzing industry in the Ruhr.

The strike of miners, sanctioned by the operators and authorized by the German government, appears to have been partially successful.

First reaction of the French was to withdraw from the shafts and to release certain officials. When this was done, in some instances, work was resumed. But the French claim less than forty percent of the West Phalanx who mine the coal quit work, and that hunger will soon drive these back to the pits.

By withdrawing troops from the railroads and banks, as the Germans had demanded, the French succeeded in getting a part time service going on the Ruhr lines, while the district banks again opened their doors.

Fritz Thyssen and six other coal barons go on trial at Mayence today for refusing to obey French commands regarding coal deliveries.

STORE SOUL WITH THE BEST THINGS IN LIFE

Advice Of The Rev. E. Richard
Edwards In Sermon On "Rummaging
Through The Soul"

MRS. CARL F. BEHER SINGS

Another fine audience for Monday night enjoyed the sermon by the Rev. E. Richard Edwards on "Rummaging Through The Soul," based on Math. 12:35. "A good man out of the good treasure of the heart bringeth forth good things; and an evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth evil things."

"We must store the garret of our soul with the best things of life and not the shoddy and the veneered so that in the after years when we are compelled to live with ourselves in the memories of the past, we can bring forth from this treasury the things that will be helpful and not hurtful," the speaker said. "You will find in your search through memory's garret the things dear to childhood's sunny hours and that should be viewed with delight, reverence, trust and love towards God—the Sunday school and the Bible. I plead with you to do your rummaging now before it is, like the Rich Man, too late to change."

Mrs. Carl Beher sang a very beautiful solo last night's service. Tonight the subject of the sermon will be "Members of the Royal Household," and Harry Doty will sing.

DEMONSTRATIONS TO BE HELD FOR WOOL MEN

Scheduled For Thursday at Noah
Webb Farm Southwest of Here
and at Carthage

TO DETERMINE WOOL GRADES

Two wool grading demonstrations will be held in this county Thursday it was announced at the county agent's office in the court house today, and they will be in charge of Claud Harper of Lafayette, sheep man at Purdue university, and one of the leaders in the wool marketing work in Indiana.

The first demonstration will take place at ten o'clock in the morning on the Noah Webb farm southwest of Rushville, just east of the Webb school building, and the second one will be held at 2 p. m. in the stock pens at Carthage.

The purpose of the demonstrations is to show how to distinguish grades of wool on the sheep's back, so as to be able to eliminate from the breeding flock, ewes which carry a poor grade of wool. This will raise the standard of the flock.

The demonstrations grow out of the wool pool which has been conducted by the Rush County Farm Bureau for the past three years. It has been found that wool sells on grades and that there is a wide variation in price, depending upon the grade. Hence, it is important, it is pointed out, that farmers produce the best grade of wool possible.

AMERICANS EXCEL AS LANDSCAPISTS

Best Paintings of This Kind Are to be Found Here, Randolph LaSalle
Coats Says

HAS EXHIBIT AT COURT HOUSE

Indiana Artist Has Returned to Indianapolis to be Identified With
State's Interests

"The best landscape painters in the world today are to be found in America," said Randolph LaSalle Coats, who is in town this week with an exhibition of his paintings which opened yesterday in the D. A. R. room at the court house.

Mr. Coats, who has recently returned to his old home in Indianapolis, after a stay in Europe, is a native of the state, and has returned to be identified with its interests.

"There is no place like Indiana," said Mr. Coats with a genial smile. "And we have some of the best artists in the country right here in our own state," he continued, naming some of the best known resident artists.

"People who expect to see great work among the modern artists of any of the older European countries," said Mr. Coats, "are usually disappointed."

"Art in France, Germany, Italy, as it is painted contemporaneously, is only in occasional instances, above the mediocre."

"While this condition is no doubt due, in a measure, to the hardships caused by the World War, during which time art languished and artists were driven into poverty and death on the battlefields, it is also true that it may be attributed to more subtle considerations. To the fact that the spring of artistic inspiration have become arid in the older civilizations."

"At that, of course, we owe much to the ultra-modernists, among the French especially, but that art could and does not flourish in the more virgin artistic soil of our country."

"We have a fresher outlook. We have more red blood in our artistic veins."

"We are more virile, more powerful. We also have less fear of academic tradition and do not hesitate to break away and experiment in untrodden fields."

"We have absorbed all that is best in the ultra-modernists and are mixing it with our more vigorous and less sophisticated experiences of life. Here in Indiana we have some landscapists who paint as well as they paint anywhere and yet who are without academic restriction. In other words their genius has had the Continued on Page Six

Mayor R. O. Johnson of Gary Says
That Wholesale Arrests Are Result of Spite Work

75 WARRANTS ARE SERVED

Seizure of Agnes Szabo, 16, That It
Was Easy to Buy Liquor, Started
The Investigation

Gary, Ind., Jan. 23—The wholesale arrest of city and county officers on charges of conspiracy to obstruct the prohibition law was political spite work," Mayor R. O. Johnson, one of those arrested, declared today.

"These arrests are absurd. They were launched by political enemies," Johnson said.

The three deputy United States marshals who served 75 warrants in connection with the blanket indictments issued in the Indianapolis federal court, used Mayor Johnson's office as headquarters.

"We have always cooperated with the federal prohibition agents," Johnson asserted. "When they arrived yesterday, I turned over thirty automobiles and officers from the police department to aid in their work. I shall continue to assist them despite the fact that I, myself, am one of those accused in the indictments."

The arrests caused little attention. Gary was quiet and apparently uninterested in the proceedings. The prisoners joked and talked with the federal officers, refusing to take the arrests seriously.

Sixty-seven citizens of Lake County, ranging from the mayor of Gary down to foreign workers of the south side, were released on bonds following their arrests in the alleged giant liquor conspiracy.

With eight indictments still to be served, United States deputy marshals were out early trying to round up the stragglers.

Among those on whom warrants have not been served were Sheriff William H. Olds, of Lake county and his staff. Olds declared he would come to Gary today from Crown Point to accept service.

City officials, many of them among those arrested, aided the federal authorities in their efforts to round up the alleged "rum ring." Mayor Roswell O. Johnson, turned his office over to the government and placed policeman at the disposal of the deputy marshals.

The alleged Gary liquor ring has been under investigation for months. Results of the investigation were laid before a federal grand jury in Indianapolis which returned the indictments.

YEGGS ESCAPE WITH $50,000

Hold up Two Messengers of New
York Municipal Bank

NEW YORK, Jan. 23—Four yeggs

held up an automobile in charge of two messengers of the Municipal Bank today and escaped with a sum reported to be $50,000. The holdup was perpetrated in broad daylight. The yeggs' automobile drove up to the bank car and forced the chauffeur to pull up to the curb. Four men with revolvers covered the chauffeur and forced him to drive to a deserted section. The bandits then took possession of the bank car which contained, $50,000, according to the guards, and drove off.

PROPOSAL TO BRING LOG ROLLING TO CITY

Presented by M. V. Spivey, Chairman
of Modern Woodmen Committee,
to Rotary Club

WOULD BE HELD JULY 3 AND 4

M. V. Spivey spoke to the Rotary club today noon at the Social club regarding the proposal to bring the district log rolling of the Modern Woodmen lodge to Rushville July 3 and 4. The Rotary club had previously gone on record as favoring the project, when it was presented once before, and Mr. Spivey emphasized what would be required of Rushville citizens.

He stated that the district Log Rolling association was organized at Rushville twenty-five years ago and that ever since that time, a log rolling had been held annually. The executive committee, which will select the place for the meeting is anxious to name Rushville if the requirements can be met. A committee composed of Mr. Spivey, L. L. Allen, J. L. Cowing, W. O. Feudner and S. L. Trabue, has been appointed by the Woodmen lodge to bring the log rolling here. The district takes in a radius of approximately forty miles and would attract about 10,000 people to the city. The event would be in the nature of a Fourth of July celebration.

The remainder of the regular meeting of the Rotary club today was taken up with short talks by Rotarians regarding meetings of other clubs they had attended and on other matters.

EXPIRES AT ROSWELL N. M.

Osmer M'Daniel of Mays Had Gone
There For His Health

The body of Osmer McDaniel of Mays, who died Saturday evening at Roswell, New Mexico, was expected to arrive at the late residence in Mays today, and the burial took place at the Blue River Cemetery near Mays.

The deceased had left his home in Mays only a few weeks ago for Roswell, where he went for his health, having been a sufferer from tuberculosis, which resulted in his death.

Mr. McDaniel was born and spent most of his boyhood near Occident, and was well known in that part of the county. He is survived by a widow, mother, two brothers and one sister.

TUTTLE GIVES $100 BOND

William Tuttle, a colored man of Carthage appeared this morning in the circuit court on a charge of assault and battery and gave bond in the sum of $100. The charge against him was filed December 22, following an alleged affair between him and another colored man. It is said that he left Carthage following the accident, and returned recently.

SOLDIER BONUS BILL AMENDED

House Of Representatives Votes
To Include Spanish American
War Veterans

CHANGES REFERENDUM PLAN

Senate Kills Measure To Return
Money From Automobile Licenses
To The Counties

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 23—The state soldier bonus bill was amended in the house of representatives today to make it include veterans of the Spanish American war. The amendment was attached on motion of Representative Harrison of Indianapolis.

Friends of the measure fear the provision will act to defeat the question when it goes to a popular vote for which the bill provides.

The measure would provide a sum of $10 for each month of service in the Spanish American and the World War be given each veteran. The amendment was carried by a vote of 57 to 30.

An amendment providing that the measure will be adopted if it receives a favorable vote of a majority voting in a referendum was also adopted. The new amendment nullified one previously which defined a favorable vote as a majority of all persons voting in the next regular election.

A proposed amendment introduced by Representative Edgar Perkins of Indianapolis to include student officers training corps met with defeat.

It is estimated that the inclusion of the Spanish American war veterans will add several thousand dollars to the bonus.

The bill is now ready for third reading in the house and no other amendment can be submitted until it reaches the senate if passed by the house.

Prohibition forces received another boost in the senate when a measure providing a fine and imprisonment for persons found guilty of selling poison liquor was passed by a dissenting vote.

Senator Cann's bill to abolish the state free employment bureau passed by a vote of 43 to 1. Democrats and Republicans alike moved to do away with the board.

A vote of 29 to 18 along party lines killed the democratic bill to consolidate the banking commission with the office of state auditor.

The senate killed the movement to return automobile license money to counties when it voted to strike out the enacting clause of the Shirley bill for that system.

The wage garnishee bill introduced in the legislature by Senator Swain of Pendleton drew the fire of labor today.

Salaries or incomes of individuals could be attached for debt on the measure. The garnishee system always has been strongly opposed by labor interests and in past legislatures has been the center of bitter Continued on Page Six

WOODMEN NAME COMMITTEE

Will Push Plans to Bring Log Roll-
ing Here July 3 and 4

A committee of five, has been selected from the Modern Woodmen lodge, who will co-operate with the Rotarians and Kiwanians in securing the State Log Rolling to be held in Rushville July 3 and 4.

The annual log rolling contest includes representatives from all Woodmen lodges of the state, and is a notable event. The first log rolling ever held in the state was held in Rushville 22 years ago, and the event has never been repeated here. The date for the annual contest has been decided, and Rushville will be given the opportunity of entertaining the hundreds of visitors, providing proper co-operation among the business men, and others. The committee is composed of Samuel L. Trabue, W. O. Feudner, J. L. Cowing, M. V. Spivey and L. L. Allen.

County Unit Law As Applied To The Rush County Schools

By C. M. GEORGE
(Former County Superintendent)

There seems to be no subject so little understood as the proposed county unit school law as applied to Rush county.

There is a very general impression that the county board of education will be appointive. As a matter of fact the present township trustees will compose the first county board of education until the expiration of their term, January 1, 1927. From that date the county board of education will be composed of five members elected for a term of four years. There will be one member from each commissioner's district and two members from the county at large. All five members must reside in and be elected by the legal voters of the school county which does not include the city of Rushville. This board will have control of all schools in the school county including the location and construction of school buildings.

A second very general impression throughout the county is that all existing township schools will be abandoned and four new buildings will be erected in the four corners of the county, or one large building at the county seat. The present township buildings are practically new and have been erected at a cost of approximately a million dollars. It would require the expenditure of another million dollars to build and equip four more buildings suitable for all the children of the school county. Could five intelligent citizens residing in different parts of the county be found who would even consider such a wild expenditure of public funds? Yet a majority of the members of the county board of education, elected by the voters of the school county, would be the only body who would have the authority to perpetrate such a fraud upon the county. Cannot the citizenship of the county be trusted to deal fairly and justly with themselves through this board from whose decision there is no appeal to any authority outside the county? ## PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with a "dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 15c and 30c.

PRESERVED FROM EVIL—The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil; He shall preserve thy soul.
Psalm 121: 7.Importers Confounded

The importers are confounded by the trend which foreign trade of the United States is taking under the protective tariff law, because it is not running true to their predictions. The most dire results were predicted during the last political campaign, in which those who profit on the cheaply produced goods of Europe by charging exorbitant prices in America, asserted that America's foreign trade would go to the eternal bow wows because of the "tariff wall" which would be erected.

But the rapid increase in volume of America's foreign trade since the new tariff law became effective has left them without an adequate argument even though some free trade newspapers are endeavoring to show that the tariff has had no effect whatsoever on the export trade—this in the face of the vicious campaign against the law, the backbone of which was that the law would kill the foreign market for American-made goods.

It has always been the contention of those who favor a protective tariff that if the American producer be assured of control in his home market he can devote considerably more time and energy to expanding his foreign markets; that he can not work abroad if he is in danger of having the foreign competitor rob him of his home market; that control of the home market means maximum production and therefore lower unit cost, whereby sales abroad are aided; that the surplus over home demand is the material with which foreign markets are built up.

The present tariff law is rapidly proving the soundness of such a view. Despite all the dismal predictions which were made of losing foreign markets if the Fordney-McCumber tariff became a law, exports continue on the increase because American producers may now proceed with confidence. Nor have the rates proved so high that foreigners are unable to get into our market, as the figures plainly show.

The vast sums of money expended by importers in distributing propaganda to defeat the present law; the great sums spent in political campaigns for the election of those who would continue the policy which under the old rule has always been ruinous when permitted free operation; the speeches and editorials condemning the policy—all appear to have been a dead loss, for the law is making good. And not a dead loss; either, for they are serving to convince the American people, when confronted with the facts concerning the operation of the policy, that its opponents did not know what they were talking about and the law having discredited them, they will not be very formidable opponents in the next presidential campaign.

Making Men of Boys

When General Baden-Powell started the Boy Scout movement he was quietly ridiculed by many incredulous people.

Today he is regarded as a benefactor of the human race.

Every one knows that you can take a weakling, put him in the army and keep him there for a few years, and he will come out a reasonably strong and healthy man. It is the rigid and systematic military training that does it.

The training accorded the Boy Scouts is much along the lines of that pursued in the army, with sufficient variation to appeal to the juvenile mind.

There is a surplus of enthusiasm bottled up in every boy's chest that requires an escape valve.

If there is a Boy Scout organization in town, it affords the necessary outlet.

If there is no such organization the boy will find an outlet elsewhere—on the street, "with the gang", or possibly in some kind of mischief dear to the young heart.

Boys will be boys until they grow to man's estate. The manner of their growth, however, depends upon the manhood and the womanhood of today.

Every town should have a Boy Scout company.

They produce better men, and thereby elevate the race in general.

MIXED JURY HEARS CASE

Muncie, Ind., Jan. 23.—The first "mixed" jury in the history of Delaware county heard its first case and after electing a negro preacher as foreman voted on the first ballot for conviction of Mike Sholey, a jitney bus driver, charged with profanity. Sholey refused the aid of a lawyer, pleaded his own case and closed with the remark "I place my case in your hands and let your conscience be your guide."

This Jumpy Weather Tells Fuel Truth

SUNSHINE one minute. Likely as not a blizzard or a thunderstorm the next. Damp, soggy air shifting in a wink to cold dryness, while old Uncle Thermometer jumps up and down with a quick-change suddenness that outstrips the nimblest guesses of the weather man.

That's the test that brings most sharply to the surface the difference between the smooth, even steadiness of Silver Flash Gasoline and the fitful, weather-ruffled unreliability of poor, kerosenish substitutes.

This surface contrast is convincing, but be sure that its lesson goes far enough.

Realize that the temperature of motor explosions reaches into thousands of degrees. If a fuel is so unsound that its explosiveness is interfered with by the change of comparatively a very few degrees of outside temperature, can it possibly be really fit for its duty at any time?

Silver Flash gasoline proves itself to be the only proper year 'round fuel by its performance during the special seasons of adverse stresses. The uniform qualities of quick starting, smooth, missless running, and full-powered explosiveness that persevere under difficult conditions are the very virtues that you need most when under the most favorable conditions, because these are the qualities that can only come from inner goodness—the clean, keroseneless, carbon-free, full-explosiveness as necessary to long-run motor health in one season as another.

It's more economical to use the best fuel this season and every season—

The Hodge-Podge By a Paragrapher with a Soul

Some of the higher thinkers get over their own head.

Perhaps many folks have felt like the Hammond parents, who named the fifth child "Enough," but they never acted that way.

It seems that the poor foreigner is not alone to blame for the conditions at Gary.

Fancy what might happen if M. C. C. uses his auto suggestion policies on congress.

Women talk more than men, says a noted New York scientist, and seeks to justify it through psychoanalysis. But why try to prove it?

Once upon a time there was a motorist who, when pinched by a motorcycle cop, bragged that he was going faster than the officer claimed.

They are building automobiles with more power so they can plow through pedestrians without killing the motor.

Truth may be stronger than fiction without being a stranger to it.

CAPITAL TEAMS NOT IN HIGH CLASS

Manual High School Basketball Five
Must be Considered More Favorably Than Others

SHORTRIDGE LOOKS GOOD

Doubtful if in Any Season There Has Been so Many Evenly Matched
Teams in State

By VEDDER GARD
(Written for United Press)
Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 23—From appearances now in the state high school basketball situation, the Indianapolis teams do not have a very high ranking in the fast and furious net sport that is played in Indiana. Of the local fives Manual has shown the best stuff so far and must be considered more favorably than either Tech or Shortridge.

It is rather hard to diagnose Tech's case. The team started practice early and kept away from the early season games so that the football men could work into the scheme of things, but the hopes of the Green and White have been dashed to earth each time they have taken the floor. The last, sad story was told at Columbus and in no uncertain terms.

The team has shifted about considerably since the opener but none of the shifts seem to add much power. The Indianapolis teams usually improve, however as the season advances and there is not much doubt that such will be the case this year.

Manual has shown good form especially in defeating Columbus some time ago. Manual has lost to Kokomo and Franklin only by three and two point margins. It is a team of some real possibilities and, under the coaching of Rowland Jones former Butler player, may develop into a real outfit before the tournaments start.

Shortridge looks better than in seasons past but is not strong enough to stand up under the terrific competition that they may meet over the state. The team still has far to go in order to be placed with the top notchers.

In the inter-city games, Manual has won over Shortridge while Shortridge sprang a surprise and beat Tech. Manual and Tech meet today in the final of the city school contests. Manual is the favorite.

Every season there is talk of a Marion county team such as Ben Davis, Valley Mills, Broad Ripple, West Newton taking the sectional but is always the Capital City teams that have fought it out to represent the section in the regionals.

It is doubtful if in any season there has been so many evenly matched teams over the state. At present, there seems to be one outstanding team, and that is Vincennes. The "Alice boys" have set a fast pace from the start and impressive victories have been won by them over a number of the best teams in Indiana.

Brains Make Champs in Sports

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)
New York, Jan. 23—"Many ball games are won during the season by crossing ball players who think in the same groove all the time," John McGraw in his "My Thirty Years in Baseball."

The Giant leader referred to the trap into which the Yankees were led deliberately three times by his players during the world's series.

There are many "groove-thinkers" in baseball, but they are not confined to the professional diamond pastime. They are in every sport. The inability to think in other than an established line of thought is the margin between a champion and a dub.

If Charley White could think fast and with some originality he would have been the lightweight champion of the world long ago and probably would be in possession of the title now.

Benny Leonard would not be the lightweight king now if Lew Tendler used his thinking apparatus in Jersey City last summer.

Jack Britton would never have been able to hold on as welterweight champion if he had followed a mechanical habit in the ring without using his head.

Yale had eleven intelligent young men on her football team last fall but the machine couldn't seem to think as a unit. It worked mechanically and it lost.

Tom Thorp, coach of the New York University eleven, saw most of the big games in the east and he acted as an official at the three post-season games on the Pacific coast.

Kineaid and Baker, two of the Southern California backs, are two of the finest players he has seen in a long time, he said on his return east.

Stockton and Gonzaga backfield stars, and Anderson and Degrot, California linemen, were also highly praised by him.

Southern California had a finely coached team and the University of California must have had a whale of a team to beat them, was his opinion.

Johnny Weismuller, the young Chicago swimming sensation was not only a headliner of 1922, but he was almost a marvel.

His feat in making thirty-three new records in one season is almost unparalleled in any branch of sport.

His stupendous ability in the water is not the result of a super-body and extraordinary strength but is caused by the use of new strokes that get more results out of ordinary strokes, in the opinion of Joe Ruddy, the veteran swimming star and great polo player of the New York Athletic Club.

Ruddy believes that Charley Daniels, the former water wiz, would have made records just as fast if he had been able to use the modern strokes.

Willie Hoppe, now that he is back on the billiard throne, is expected to remain for another ten years or so as the cue champion.

The nervous ailment which affected his arm some time ago and handicapped him noticeably in the last championship tournament, has been relieved and he says he is sound as ever.

Hoppe has lived too well and trained too seriously to be losing himself at his age, and if his nerves do not get him, he would be the best in his profession for a good many more years.

Hittin' 'Em and Missin' 'Em

JOHN GOT THE STOGIES

John Geraghty, coach of the coaches, who coaches the coaches, will have his hands full in making 'em keep training rules. Fifteen minutes after the coaches organized their wee small team of 200 pounders, John walked out on the street, and caught Coach Means, puffing away on a stogie. Of course, it perfectly is alright for a coach to smoke, provided that the coach isn't playing, so John relieved his player of the cigars, and smoked 'em himself.

COACHES WANT A GAME

The coaches will probably play their first game with the coaches of Hancock county. Hittin' 'em would gamble that a team composed of other teachers could beat John Geraghty's coaches. Try this line-up: John Moore, Circleville principal; Harry McKinzie, Manilla; A. F. Cotton, Rushville; Cliff Mitchell, Raleigh; and C. C. Richey of Milroy.

CAN FAIRVIEW BEAT ALQUINA?

WATCH MOSCOW BOYS

When it comes to stoppin' a team from a winning streak, it takes Moscow. Last week, Moscow headed off Mt. Auburn from winning a dozen straight, and then comes the story in the game last Friday, where Moscow stopped Newport, who was headed for eleven straight. Now, Moscow, we're sorry, but you can't find any team in Rush county with a record of more than two or three straight, so you will have to keep on going outside of the county for your big game.

WE WONDER WHO LOST

The editor of one of the high school papers around here, tells Hittin' 'em rather confidentially, that following a game recently, one of the rooters who accompanied the team to a nearby town, was broke when the game was over, and was so badly "on his uppers", that he could stop on a dime and tell whether it was heads or tails.

IT'S A FUNNY WORLD— YOU CAN'T PLEASE 'EM ALL

Not a student, but a royal supporter of R. H. S., takes the liberty to drop us a few lines, calling us down for our remarks, which we pass on to you: "Hittin' 'em and Missin' 'em—I've been reading Hittin' 'em and Missin' 'em from the start. I think it is a great thing for the basketball fan, but I didn't like the way you razzed "our team" in last Saturday's paper. I have followed the team for some time—I seen last year's team bring home victory and this year's team meet defeat—but I am always backing the team. I think they will win the sectional this year, anyhow it all depends on the draw. Remember one year, when little Sandusky upset the dope, well dope doesn't count much and when you must use dope why not give RUSHVILLE the inside? lege 6.

Suppose Connersville or Rushville draws the hard run of games? Who will win? Then too as a Basket Ball fan, I think we should all boost Rushville, stand back of coach Jones and his men, let them know that Rushville is backing them, Boost "OUR TEAM", Talk "OUR TEAM", Follow "OUR TEAM" and HELP "OUR TEAM" WIN THE SECTIONAL. Let us all boost and yell, then if we don't win we will be willing to back the sectional winner to the last game. Every one boost our Rushville High School Basket Ball Team to VICTORY. All together, YEA RUSHVILLE, LET'S GO.

DON'T LET 'EM KID YOU WATERLOO

We are reminded that Fairview is going to have a big tourney Saturday. Eight towns, will begin as follows: Gings vs Glenwood; Fairview vs Orange; Everton vs Alquina; Waterloo vs Bentonville. The F. H. S. Chatter, the high school paper at Fairview, has it all figured out. The final game will be with Fairview and Alquina.

There's one place in Indiana where Hittin' 'em would like to be Friday night—that's Anderson. We're pickin' Anderson, but on that night it might be Vincennes.

EXTRA-NEWS ITEM

Hittin' 'em just got a radio call from the high school building. Lakin, basketball player, who didn't measure up to standard on English, will get another chance. He was given a condition on the subject.

DON'T LET FRIENDSHIP KEEP YOU FROM BEATIN' 'EM

It will almost be like two Rush county teams playing each other Friday night, when Rushville meets Shelbyville here. On the Shelbyville line-up are two real stars, Hodges at center and Barnett at forward, both living just southwest of here, who attend school at Shelbyville, on account of the railroad accommodations offering them better service than toward Rushville. These two Rush county boys belong here, but that darn old railroad wouldn't change their schedule.

GOOD NEWS AT LAST

Rushville is preparing to spring a surprise. They're gonna beat Shelbyville. A few weeks ago Shelbyville defeated them down there by six points, and there is a chance of the Scarlet aggregation getting back on the band wagon again. Shelby has been defeated, you know.

BIG OFFERING IN BASKETBALL HERE

Shelbyville Comes Friday Night For
Game With Rushville and Elwood
on Saturday Night

COLTS TO PLAY BOTH NIGHTS

One of the best offerings in basketball will be given to local fans this week end, as the Rushville high school team will tackle two strong aggregations, meeting Shelbyville here Friday and Elwood here Saturday night.

The second team of the high school will play in the curtain raiser each game, meeting Glenwood here Friday night, and the strong Morton high school second team of Richmond in the preliminary game on Saturday night.

Both Shelbyville and Elwood are rated in the Big Ten list of Indiana schools, and the locals will have to exert themselves in order to hold them down. On Friday, Elwood plays at Connersville, and each team will enter the game here Saturday night on even terms as far as playing two games in a row.

Shelbyville plays Technical of Indianapolis Wednesday, and will have one day of rest before coming here. Rushville has a good chance to defeat them, and this game is expected to be a close one from start to finish. Elwood, is rated as one of the best in the state, and as far as the locals are concerned, they are an unknown foe.

MOSCOW KEEPS UP VICTORIOUS MARCH

Orange Township Lads, Without
Services of Two First Line Men,
Trim St. Paul

MEET WESTPORT WEDNESDAY

Moscow high school basketball team continued their victorious march Saturday night, against St. Paul, winning easily by the score of 27 to 13. The game was played on the floor at Blue Ridge. The first half ended 16 to 8 and although St. Paul had a much larger team, they could not get near the basket for markers.

Moscow was without the services of Coleman and B. Hugnerford, who have been going good lately—although Hugnerford got into the game for awhile. Gosnell proved to be the scoring ace and the defense of Captain Tillison and I. Hugnerford was hard to surpass. The team, however, showed the effects of the hard battle of the night before. Whisman, substitute forward, got into the game and played well.

Moscow plays Westport Wednesday night in what should be a real battle as the Decatur lads have been cutting a wide swathe so far. Then on Friday night Raleigh will be met in a return game. Raleigh was defeated at Moscow in the opening game of the season, 27 to 9, but the teams are now more evenly matched, and better balanced.

FIGHT RESULTS

Jersey City—Harry Greb, American light heavyweight champion, easily outpointed Billy Shade, California, in 12 rounds, no decision bout.

Detroit—Johnny Mendelshom Milwaukee middleweight and Sid Barbanian, local boy, fought a slow ten round draw.

At Indianapolis—Louis Lavell of Anderson, Johnny Lucas of St. Louis, ten round draw.

K. O. Cincus of Pittsburg out-boxed Jackie Barnhart of Terre Haute in ten rounds.

Kid Sparks of Terre Haute out-boxed Don Carson of Indianapolis in ten rounds.
Young Carpenter, New Orleans knocked out Young Murphy of Mt. Jackson in first round.

A FEATHER IN HIS HAT

Cincinnati, Ohio, Jan. 23.—The American beau brummell of 1923 will wear a feather in his hat if the clothiers designers in convention here act upon the recommendation of their convention.

"The style of mens clothing should be relieved by decorating derbies with pink feathers," the committee reported.

Brown Derbies call for lavender feathers, the report said.

The Plum Creek Aid society will hold an all day meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. Will McMillin, and all members are urged to attend the session.

Miss Dorothy Davis entertained at a high noon dinner party Sunday at her home near Orange. The guests were the Misses Lavonne Nelson of Carthage and Marjorie May of Orange, and Finley Nelson and George Gray of Carthage.

The Psi Iota Xi sorority will enjoy a pitch-in supper at the home of Miss Virginia Haydon Wednesday evening. All the members are urged to be present at the home of Miss Haydon in North Main street by 5:30 o'clock, so that dinner may be served at six o'clock.

The American Literary Club will be entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. P. McCarty in North Harrison street. The meeting will be held at two o'clock and all the members are urged to be present. An interesting program has been planned for this meeting.

The regular meeting of the Tri Kappa sorority was held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Walter E. Smith in North Harrison street. During the business session it was reported that $172.00 was cleared from the Charity Ball given by the sorority a few weeks ago. Other matters of importance were also discussed at this meeting. A delicious luncheon was served by the hostess during the social hour.

Mrs. Louis Lambert was hostess to the members of the Monday Circle, Monday afternoon at her home in East Seventh street. The program for discussion of this meeting was based on "Cuba" and two very interesting papers were given on the subject, one by Mrs. Vern Norris on "Description and History of Cuba," who made her talk more interesting by the fact that a few years ago she visited in Cuba and was familiar with conditions there. She also had many pictures of Cuban life and scenery which were shown to the guests at this meeting. The other talk was given by Mrs. J. B. Kinsinger on "Social and Economic Conditions in Cuba." Her paper was also excellent from every standpoint. Following the two talks a general discussion was entered into by all the members and a delightful social hour was enjoyed.

SEEK FUND TO CONVICT GUILTY VIGILANTES

Labor Unions Want $3,000,000 To Prosecute Citizens Committee Guilty Of Lynching Workers

TO TAKE PART OF EARNINGS

Harrison, Ark., Jan. 23.—A three million dollar fund to prosecute the "citizens committee"—the new government in the Ozark hills was sought today by labor unions.

The fund will be used to arrest and convict vigilantes guilty of the lynching of E. C. Grigor and the flogging and deportation of scores of other striking railroad workers, according to the Federated Shop Crafts of Fort Smith, where the gigantic prosecution plan was launched.

Every shop union in the country will be called on to set aside one percent of the earnings of each worker during the next thirty days for the fund.

Labor also will fight constituted officials who are members of the "citizens committee" according to reports here. Prosecution of these officials will be sought—it was reported.

The vigilantes prepared for an investigation by a committee from the state legislature. The committee will probe lynching of Grigor and other outbreaks in connection with the situation which resulted in a mob of 1,500 farmers and business men from Northern Arkansas gathering here Monday Jan. 15 to prevent paralysis of the Meandering railroad, the Missouri and North Arkansas.

AMERICANS EXCEL AS LANDSCAPISTS

opportunity to express itself freely and naturally.

"The American artist can and does travel and live abroad. But he is apt to be more interested in seeing the life and landscape as it presents itself to his new world eyes than trying to adapt himself to the artistic canons and ideals of the modern European painters who have very little to tell him or, indeed, to tell the world.

"I see a great future for American art. And a greater for Indiana art if our own people will understand that they have great art right at home, at their own doors, and will encourage and foster that art in the proper manner."

Mr. Coats' current display in the D. A. R. room is interesting as a demonstration of his remarks. The canvasses there shown, painted while in Europe this summer, are typically American in their feeling, method and handling. When reaching Paris last summer he at once went to St. Jean du Doigt on the Brittany coast where, with several other well known American artists he painted through the summer.

His virile style and bold and brilliant use of color, characteristic of Indiana artists lent itself admirably to the painting of the sea on this picturesque and historic coast.

And especially is he successful in depicting the movement and the spirit of the ocean in its differing moods and aspects—The dash of spray, the group of small boats swinging at anchor in a sheltered cove, the beat on the surf, the pound of the waves, the wonder and beauty and great colorful charm of the water as it surges upon and caresses the rocks and the sands—all this Mr. Coats puts into his pictures and all is admirably transcribed in paint for his inland friends to see.

Next summer Mr. Coats will be in Provincetown where he will assist James R. Hopkins in conducting summer painting classes.

Mr. Coats, who has been identified with art interests in Indiana for a number of years, will be given a tea on Sunday afternoon, January 28, by the Indiana Artist's club, of which he is one of the founders and present members.

SEC. DENBY WANTS TO "MODERNIZE" 13 SHIPS

Urges House Naval Committee Immediately To Appropriates $6,500,000 To Carry Out Program

TO KEEP PACE WITH JAPAN

Washington, Jan. 22.—Secretary of Navy Denby urged before the house naval committee the immediate appropriation of $6,500,000 to "modernize" the thirteen capital ships to be retained under the treaty of Washington.

"Next year the navy will ask for an additional $28,600,000 to complete the modernization program and to keep pace with the navies of Great Britain and Japan," he said. Denby said that modernization of ships would be proper under the disarmament treaty.

"Great Britain and Japan," he said, "began to modernize their navies before the Washington conference."

Denby stated approximately $200,000,000 a year was being saved by the United States as a result of abandonment of the 1916 naval program.

County Unit Law as Applied To The Rush County Schools

that the county unit school law proposes to abandon all township schools and erect four new buildings in the corners of the county or at the county seat is so extremely ridiculous that it deserves no further comment.

The county unit school law proposes to use the same ordinary intelligence in dealing with school affairs that is exercised in other public matters. Where, Mr. School Patron, do you attend church? Where do you attend lodge? Where do you buy your dry goods and groceries? Where is your bank located? In general where is your community center? You will not permit your township pride to prevent you from passing over imaginary lines in your business dealings. Then why not send your children, as about ninety percent of the children of the county are sent, to school where they will have the greatest educational advantages without any regard to township lines?

When your children attend school outside your township, why should you not pay the same school tax rate as all other taxpayers who are patrons of the same school and without any regard to township lines? Does your physician charge you a different fee when you go to his office for medical services just because you live outside his township? Does your banker charge you a higher or lower rate of interest because you are out of your township? Is your freight rate any higher or lower than that of your neighbor who lives on an adjoining farm but in a different township? The county unit school law will correct this defect.

The county farmers' federation since its organization has saved its members many thousands of dollars through its systems of co-operative buying and marketing. The county school unit system in a similar way would save to the taxpayers large sums of money in the purchase of school supplies and by buying only such supplies as are needed. Also the law provides that after the expiration of the term of office of the first board that the second board shall serve without pay, similar to the present township advisory boards and the county council. This would be an additional saving of about seven thousand dollars per year. In this county more than a hundred thousand dollars have been wantonly wasted in needless expenditure for school grounds, architects' plans, buildings and their equipment, all within the last twenty years. An expenditure of another hundred thousand dollars is now being contemplated on buildings which undoubtedly would never be built under the county unit system, because a county board would hesitate to erect buildings at county expense on locations far removed from community centers and where in all probability they would be abandoned in a few years.

The county unit law does not contemplate any radical changes in the schools as they are now conducted except to correct evident defects and make them more efficient. This law is for the purpose of changing the school government to harmonize with forty years of school progress.

NEWS OF DEATH RECEIVED

Young Son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilson Dies At North Madison

Mrs. Wilbur Wilson received word this morning of the death of Paul Wilson, twenty-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilson of Prescott, Arizona, which occurred at the home of her brother, Jerome Champion of North Madison, Ind. Mrs. Wilson was formerly Miss Ruth Champion of this city and is a niece of Mrs. Wilbur Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilson have been in Arizona on account of their health and the latter's brother and family were taking care of the child. The baby is survived by the parents and one brother Lawrence and several other relatives. Death was caused by tubercular meningitis. Mrs. Wilbur Wilson and Mrs. B. W. Reynolds will go to North Madison to attend the funeral.

FORMER RESIDENT IS DEAD

Mrs. Martha Bainbridge Expires At Her Home In Greensburg

Relatives here have received word of the death of Mrs. Martha Bainbridge, aged 65 years wife of Milton Bainbridge, who died Monday at her home in Greensburg. The deceased had been ill for only three weeks suffering with heart trouble. Mrs. Bainbridge was a former resident of this county and was very well known in this city. She is survived by the husband and an adopted son Harry Caldwell.

The funeral services will be conducted Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock at the late residence in Greensburg and burial will take place in a cemetery there.

lights.

Another bill which will precipitate a storm in the assembly was being drafted for introduction. It was officially recognized chiropractors and put them on the same plane now occupied by medical doctors. The bill would create a board of chiropractic examiners and would prescribe qualifications for chiropractors. In past assemblies, it has been strong opposed by the medical profession.

Radical changes in the law governing licensing of automobiles are proposed in a bill introduced by Representatives Post and Murden. The measure would double the license fees on all automobiles other than pleasure cars. County auditors would issue the licenses and counties would receive funds originating within their boundaries up to $50,000, with provision for the remainder to be turned into the highway commission fund.

Members of the legislature are slowly abandoning their idea of repealing the absent voters law and are turning their attention to means of amending it to prevent its abuse. Representative Kenney proposed a bill which would permit voters who will be absent from their voting places on election day to cast their ballot with the county clerk any time between the fifteenth day and the first day before election. It would abolish voting by mail and by persons who live temporarily away from their voting places.

Complete revision of public health laws is provided in a bill introduced by Dr. J. N. Hurty, a member of the house of representatives.

AGREE ON SOFT COAL WAGE

JUDGE SAVES HIS OWN COUNTY $200 A MONTH

Establishes a Humanitarian Principle of Restoring Fatherless Children to Their Mother

IS ALLOWED $250 A WEEK

Evansville, Ind., Jan. 23.—By means of a humanitarian principle of restoring fatherless children to their mother instead of sending them to orphan asylums, Judge Lockyear during 1922 saved Vanderburgh county $200 a month.

This was accomplished by placing the children in their homes with an allowance of $250 a week to their mothers.

Judge Lockyear took the position that institutions throughout the state have been profiteering from their orphan charges by reaping profits from their labor. The institutions also collect the county allowance for the orphans after the children become self-supporting, according to Judge Lockyear.

By returning children to their mothers, the county is not required to pay the allowance after they become self-supporting. In addition to this, the children receive the benefit of home training and escape the stigma that accompanies some orphanages.

HALF MILLION FOR HOMES

Muncie, Ind., Jan. 23.—A total of $542,928 was spent in Muncie in 1922 on building work in the resident section. This does not include the erection of a new Elk's home, Masonic temple and Bethel synagogue. The highest cost residence was the Grace Episcopal church manse which cost $12,000.

WATER BOY TO INSPECTOR

Claypool, Ind., Jan. 23.—From water boy to car inspector in forty two years—this briefly is the history of Joseph F. Smith, who has been employed by the Nickel Plate railroad during that time. Smith started carrying water for workmen who were constructing the road.

What Are You Missing?

NO one can want anything until he knows of its existence. That is why ancient folk managed to live fairly contented lives without window glass, soap, automobiles, stoves, toothbrushes, telephones and so many of the things we consider the bare necessities of life.

Advertising has done more than one thing to make this era of ours so rich in comforts and conveniences. To advertising is directly due much of the multiplication of products and service which are now at the disposal of everyone.

There is no denying the fact that advertising has ironed out the mechanics of existence. It has made life easier and more pleasant by bringing to our attention countless necessities which years ago a king's ransom could not have bought.

Folks dress better, eat better, sleep better and live better because of local newspaper advertising.

You owe much to advertising--and you miss much when you fail to read it.

AMUSEMENTS

Last Time Here Today

He was a typical down-and-out showing plainly all the evidences of a hard life in a world which had treated him with scant courtesy, and so, being what he was, "Pedro the Putty Face" found a temporary home in the "Port of Missing Men", which Rex Ingram established for his South American cabaret characters who appear in "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," a Metro version of the famed novel of Vincent Blaseo Ibanex, being shown for the last time today at the Princess.

In connection with hundreds of other strange characters, Pedro, who has sailed the seven seas without finding a wind that would blow color into his drug-dyed face, characterized his brief advent into the movies as the softest snap he had ever run into. In addition to drawing his "three a day" and not being required to "doll up" he had plenty of opportunity to see a lot of acting whose novelty appealed to him, and, best of all, he was paid real money for doing the things he liked.

To take care of these "floaters," as they are dubbed in the language of the road, a particular part of the big Metro studio grounds was set apart and as a fitting title for his home of these strange characters from every part of the Globe, it was called the "Port of Missing Men," because its many temporary inhabitants who wished to keep their real identity a secret. As it was only their picturesque appearance that Director Ingram wanted their biographies were whatever they chose to tell.

At The Mystic Again Today

For sheer dramatic power it would be hard to beat "The Fatal Marriage" D. W. Griffith's brilliant picturization of Lord Tennyson's epic poem "Enoch Arden." With Wallace Reid and Lillian Gish in the leading roles "The Fatal Marriage" is being shown at the Mystic today, where all those who have memorized the immortal poem at some time or other in their school days will enjoy seeing the famous characters of Tennyson's imagination come to life again upon the screen.

There is a tremendous drama in "The Fatal Marriage." There can be no mistake about that. The story of the tragic Enoch who goes off to win his fortune against the pleading of his wife is one that will grip the heart and weave a spell of deepest feeling about you.

There are probably many Enochs in the world today although we hear of them infrequently. The world was made many of them. The Enoch of Tennyson's poem never lapsed in his great love for Annie and their children. But when he was shipwrecked and cast away upon an uncharted island and failed to appear for year, Annie finally abandoned hope of his return, and accepted Philip, her old admirer as her second husband. Then the homecoming of Enoch and his discovery, unknown to Annie and Philip, that the latter had become man and wife and that they were supremely happy is all developed with marked beauty after the usual thoroughgoing manner of Mr. Griffith.

OBITUARY

Elias Julian, the eldest son of Absalom and Nancy Julian was born the 27th day of Feb. 1846 in Piqua County, Ohio, and departed this life Jan. 19th, 1923 at 5:00 A. M., at the age of 76 years, 10 months and 22 days. His death occurred at the home of his daughter Mrs. Paul Krumlauf who resides in Rush county with whom he has made his home for the past 4 years.

On the 25th of Jan. 1872 Mr. Julian was united in marriage to Harriett E. Dresbach, daughter of Wm. Dresbach a native of Piqua county, Ohio, and to their union has been blessed with eight children, four sons and four daughters. Namely: Milton of Remington, Ind., Milo of Walton, Ind., Guy of Wabash, Ind., and Arthur who departed this life April 13, 1894. Mrs. Cynthia Roush of Plymouth, Ind., Mrs. Amanda Burk of Redcliff, Alberta, Canada, who departed this life April 16th, 1919, Mrs. Nancy Krumlauf of Rushville, Ind., and Mrs. Ruth Haselby also of Rushville, Ind.

Mr. Julian, at the age of nineteen started out in life for himself, and from 1865 until 1870 was engaged in trading speculations in Missouri. On the expiration of that period he disposed of his business interests in Missouri and thence moved to Iroquois County, Illinois when he devoted his time to farming and stock raising. After farming a number of years he purchased 140 acres in that locality which he farmed till the year 1895 when he sold that farm and purchased 240 acres in Benton county, Indiana. In 1912 he retired from actual farm labor and moved to Remington, Ind., where he resided until coming to Rush county.

He was a man of positive convictions and was always ready to encourage any enterprise calculated to prove of public benefit.

This leaves to mourn his death the loving wife, one sister, of Galloway, Neb., six children and eight grandchildren.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. W. E. Stanley of Young America, Interment in East Hill cemetery at Rushville.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to our dear friends and neighbors for their kindness during our recent bereavement. Also for the beautiful floral offerings.

IN THE MIDST OF CAMPAIGN

Haynes Plans To Draw Net Tighter Against Drugs And Rum

San Francisco, Jan. 23.—Prohibition Commissioner Roy Haynes today was in the midst of his campaign against illicit liquor and narcotic evil, on the Pacific coast.

Haynes spent Monday in conference with Samuel Rutter, state prohibition director, and other dry agents here, planning a method of drawing tighter the net against both drugs and rum.

The greatest obstacle in the way of effective enforcement of the Harrison narcotic act is smuggling from foreign countries, Haynes said. He then announced that much of his attention in Southern California would be devoted to the liquor and narcotic smuggling traffic across the Mexican border.

Realize what Kellogg's Bran

means to your family's health?

Eaten regularly each day, Kellogg's Bran will permanently relieve constipation; it will free you from dangerous toxic poisons that lead to 90% of all human illness; it will remove the cause and sweeten a bad breath; it will clear a pimply complexion through its work on the bowels. In fact, Kellogg's Bran, through its natural action as a bulk, indigestible agent, will tone-up the whole system!

If you knew exactly what constipation means from a medical view-point you would lose no time eating Kellogg's Bran yourself, and serving it daily to your family. And, Kellogg's is actually delicious, its nut-like flavor adding greatly to the enjoyment of eating cereals. Eat at least two table-spoonfuls each day, in chronic cases, with each meal.

There are many attractive ways to serve Kellogg's Bran. Eat it in winter with hot milk as a cereal. Or, mix it with cereals before serving. Many housewives "cook" it with cereals, in each case adding two table-spoonfuls for each portion. You will also enjoy the nut-like flavor of Kellogg's Bran when it has been sprinkled over hot or cold cereals.

You have missed some of the joys of life if you have not eaten raisin bread, muffins, griddle-cakes, etc., made with Kellogg's Bran. Recipes are printed on each box.

Don't delay your fight against constipation; don't lose a minute in the great battle against illness! You can buy Kellogg's Bran from all grocers and you can have it served in individual packages at first-class hotels, restaurants and clubs.

ORGANIZED LABOR TO SEEK FEW LAWS

Moulders' Union Wants Foundries Equipped With Sanitary Wash Rooms and to be Well-Ventilated.

PAINTERS SUPPORT BILL

Several Amendments Have Been Offered by Labor to the Workmen's Compensation Bill

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 23—Organized labor will ask few laws from the state legislature at this session, Tom N. Taylor, president of the Indiana State Federation of Labor, said today.

Taylor said he knows of only two bills which friends of organized crafts will introduce.

One bill is being drawn by the moulders' union. It provides that foundries shall be equipped with sanitary wash rooms and shall be well ventilated.

The other bill is being supported by painters. It would prohibit poisonous paints being used in sprays.

But several bills have been introduced, Taylor said, that affect labor indirectly. One is the state constabulary bill, which is being bitterly fought by labor.

Taylor said in other states having state police, employers use them to intimidate workmen.

"If there is talk of a strike among the workmen in a factory for instance, the employers hear to it through special operatives among the men and then have the state station the police in front of the factory gates to frighten the men," he said.

Several amendments have been offered by labor to the workmen's compensation bill which was drafted by the state industrial board. The bill asks the following changes in the present law:

1. Making the payment of 90 percent disability the same as complete disability—500 weeks.
2. Providing for payment during the period of recuperation in addition to the sum provided for specific injury.
3. Adoption of a uniform eye test for common use.
4. Increasing compensation from 100 to 200 weeks for complete and permanent loss of hearing.
5. Increasing the maximum payment from $5,000 to $6,000.
6. Increasing the amount allowed for funeral expenses from $100 to $150.

7. Compelling payment of claims weekly.

8. Allowing a lump sum settlement at any time instead of six months after injury.

It also reduces the membership of the industrial board from five to three—one of the requests made by Governor McCray in his message to the assembly.

"I don't see why the governor should pick on this board out of sixty-seven others," Taylor said. The senate insurance committee will hold a hearing on the measure tonight.

Organized labor also favors the bill now in the house of representatives providing an eight hour working day for women. The labor committee will hold a hearing on that bill tomorrow night.

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Relieved of Nervousness and Other Distressing Ailments by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Brooklyn, N. Y.—"I first took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound four years ago, and am taking it now for the Change of Life and other troubles and I receive great benefit from it. I am willing to let you use my letter as a testimonial because it is the truth. I found your booklet in my letter-box and read it carefully, and that is how I came to take the Vegetable Compound myself. It has given me quiet nerves so that I sleep at night, and a better appetite. I have recommended it already to all my friends and relatives."—Mrs. ENGLEMAN, 202 Palmetto St., Ridgewood, Brooklyn, N. Y.

For the woman suffering from nervous troubles causing sleeplessness, headache, hysteria, "the blues," Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will be found a splendid medicine. For the woman of middle age who is passing through the trials of that period, it can be depended upon to relieve the troubles common at that time.

Remember, the Vegetable Compound has a record of nearly fifty years of service and thousands of women praise its merit, as does Mrs. Englemann. You should give it a fair trial now.
